The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown,Theresa Jarnagi Enos,2005-04-11 This handbook offers wisdom and guidance from experienced college writing program administrators It is intended for WPAs at all levels of experience The Promise and Perils of Writing Program Administration Theresa Enos,Shane Borrowman,2008-01-26 Combining formal quantitative research with narrative based scholarship THE PROMISE AND PERILS OF WRITING PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION represents multiple voices from faculty balancing between the demands of teaching writing and administering writing programs in professional ethical ways often under circumstances that can be defined at best as difficult In these pages junior faculty tell their stories of triumph and trauma while more firmly established composition scholars reflect upon the changing and challenging profession we all share Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration Kelly Ritter,MELISSA IANETTA,2024-11-01 Leading with the provocative observation that writing programs administration lacks an established set of texts that provides a baseline of shared knowledge in which to root our ongoing conversations and with which to welcome newcomers Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration focuses on WPA identity to propose one such grouping of texts This Landmark volume is the cornerstone resource for new Writing Program Administrators and graduate students seeking an ever important overview of the literature on Writing Program Administration Drawing broadly across scholarship in writing programs and writing centers Ritter and Ianetta work to historicize theorize and problematize the ever shifting answers offered to the question Who or what is a WPA Writing Program Administration Susan H. McLeod,2007-03-16 This reference guide provides a comprehensive review of the literature on all the issues responsibilities and opportunities that writing program administrators need to understand manage and enact including budgets personnel curriculum assessment teacher training and supervision and more Writing Program Administration also provides the first comprehensive history of writing program administration in U S higher education Writing Program Administration includes a helpful glossary of terms and an annotated bibliography for further reading

Guide to College Writing Assessment Peggy O'Neill,Cindy Moore,Brian Huot,2009-03-20 While most English professionals feel comfortable with language and literacy theories assessment theories seem more alien English professionals often don t have a clear understanding of the key concepts in educational measurement such as validity and reliability nor do they understand the statistical formulas associated with psychometrics But understanding assessment theory and applying it by those who are not psychometricians is critical in developing useful ethical assessments in college writing programs and in interpreting and using assessment results A Guide to College Writing Assessment is designed as an introduction and source book for WPAs department chairs teachers and administrators Always cognizant of the critical components of particular teaching contexts O Neill Moore and Huot have written sophisticated but accessible chapters on the history theory application and background of writing assessment and they offer a dozen appendices of practical samples and models for a range of common assessment needs Because there are numerous resources available to assist faculty in assessing the writing of individual students in particular classrooms A Guide to College Writing Assessment focuses on approaches to the kinds of assessment that typically happen outside of individual classrooms placement evaluation exit examination programmatic assessment and faculty evaluation Most of all the argument of this book is that creating the conditions for meaningful college writing assessment hinges not only on understanding the history and theories informing assessment practice but also on composition programs availing themselves of the full range of available assessment practices A Guide to Professional Development for Graduate Students in English Cindy Moore,Hildy Miller,2006 In this guide the first of its kind Cindy Moore and Hildy Miller provide detailed information about how to develop credentials for both academic and nonacademic careers in teaching scholarship administration service and editing Written in response to nationwide calls for more comprehensive and deliberate mentoring of future English faculty and for greater support of students who wish to pursue English oriented jobs outside of the academy this guide the first of its kind is at once practical and eye opening Providing detailed information about how to develop credentials for both academic and nonacademic careers in teaching scholarship administration service and editing the guide offers an indepth look at the field s many possibilities On another level the book addresses the rigors and stresses of graduate school by candidly discussing faculty expectations student responsibilities and a variety of survival strategies Whether you are already enrolled in a graduate program or have just begun to consider program options this resource can help you identify long term career goals as well as the skills and abilities needed to meet those goals

Blurring Boundaries Peggy O'Neill,2007 Brings together scholars from various disciplines institutions methodologies and genres who are interested in writing and preparing teachers and researchers of writing This book covers topics such as writing assessment teaching writing and teacher preparation graduate education electronic technologies community literacy and more Discord And Direction Sharon James Mcgee,Carolyn Handa,2005-08-30 The collection further argues that postmodernism offers a useful lens through which to understand the work of WPAs and to examine the discordant cultural and institutional issues that shape their work Each chapter tackles a problem local to its author s writing program or experience as a WPA and each responds to existing discord in creative ways that move toward rebuilding and redirection Jacket Writing on the Edge ,2002 Changing of Knowledge in Composition Lance Massey,Richard C. Gephardt,2011-07-16 Lance Massey and Richard Gebhardt offer in this collection many signs that composition again faces a moment of precariousness even as it did in the 1980s the years of the great divorce from literary studies The contours of writing in the university again are rapidly changing making the objects of scholarship in composition again unstable Composition is poised to move not from modern to postmodern but from process to postprocess from a service oriented field to a research driven discipline Some would say we are already there Momentum is building to replace composition and the pedagogical imperative long implied in that term with a writing studies model devoted to the study of composition as a fundamental tool of and force within all areas of human activity Appropriately contributors here use Stephen M North s 1987 book The Making of Knowledge in Composition to frame and background their discussion as they look at both the present state of the field and its potential futures As in North s volume The Changing of Knowledge in Composition describes a body of research and pedagogy brimming with conflicting claims methodologies and politics and with little consensus regarding the proper subjects and modes of inquiry The deep ambivalence within the field itself is evident in this collection Contributors here envision composition both as retaining its commitment to broad based generalized writing instruction and as heading toward content based vertical writing programs in departments and programs of writing studies They both challenge and affirm composition s pedagogical heritage And they sound both sanguine and pessimistic notes about composition s future Composition And/or Literature Linda S. Bergmann,Edith M. Baker,2006 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Bibliographic Index ,2006 Center Will Hold Michael Pemberton,Joyce A. Kinkead,2003-10 Introduction tracing the growth of a scholarly community Michael A Pemberton and Joyce Kinkead The writing lab newsletter as history tracing the growth of a scholarly community Michael A Pemberton In the spirit of service making writing center research a featured character Nancy M Grimm Writing center assessment searching for the proof of our effectiveness Neal Lerner Separation initiation and return tutor training manuals and writing center lore Harvey Kail Power and authority in peer tutoring Peter Carino Breathing lessons or Collaboration is Michele Eodice Re shaping the profession graduate courses in writing center theory practice and administration Rebecca Jackson Carrie Leverenz Joe Law Administration across the curriculum or Practicing what we preach Josephine A Koster An ideal writing center re imagining space and design Leslie Hadfield et al Mentoring in electronic spaces using resources to sustain relationships James A Inman and Donna M Sewell A Critical Look at Institutional Mission Joseph Janangelo,2016 Resources in Education ,1997 A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators 2e Rita Malenczyk,2016-09-01 A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators 2nd Edition presents the major issues and questions in the field of writing program administration The collection provides aspiring new and seasoned WPAs with the theoretical lenses terminologies historical contexts and research they need to understand the nature history and complexities of their intellectual and administrative work
