ancestral roots and to build a reality where Chinese American femmes can exist and thrive outside of a patriarchal ableist society Through installation and projections my GIFs both reflect and refract within the space alternately obscuring and challenging the viewer s perception The mirror manifests in the magic mirrors exhibition through the mirrored actions that occur in my GIFs in the ways the images of me reflect off the acrylic sculptures and through the circular shapes that continuously repeat as spotlights bowls round fans tabletops and mirrors themselves The stylized repetitions found in both my GIFs and installations is informed by Judith Butler s exploration into gender performance and employs Jos Esteban Mu oz s disidentification not just as a method of survival but one that imagines a limitless futurity My self portraits refuse to provide the viewer with a full experience of my body thus refuse to further the exploitation that I am critiquing As Legacy Russell stated Glitch Feminism asks us to look at the deeply flawed society we are all currently implicated by participating in and to confront the violence this society has done to bodies who disidentify to bodies who exist within the liminal and embrace the in between as a core component of survival of futurity
