The Guardian of Power Agnes Toth,2015-02-20 I felt summer in the air The season spouted the heat with its thousands of colors I drunk up its sweet fresh smell and I was thinking about my childhood That day I realized that I was no more a child Maybe that was the last day of my youth as the following day I would turn eighteen so I was going to arrive to a turning point This number has a great meaning in everybody s life but in our world it has a particular importance I was living in the country of Pangea since I had been born We have a rule when children turn eighteen they have to appear at the Council of the Old where their future is decided Usually they give the same trade to the youngsters as their parents fulfilled so I had a great chance to become a teacher The situation with my brother was totally different We were twins but he was so extraordinary he was more serious deeper than me On that day when we became adults our fate was intermixed and I had to be a ruthless warrior a Guardian of Power This is how my story begins
