Convict Tattoos Simon Barnard,2016-08-29 At least thirty seven per cent of male convicts and fifteen per cent of female convicts were tattooed by the time they arrived in the penal colonies making Australians quite possibly the world s most heavily tattooed English speaking people of the nineteenth century Each convict s details including their tattoos were recorded when they disembarked providing an extensive physical account of Australia s convict men and women Simon Barnard has meticulously combed through those records to reveal a rich pictorial history Convict Tattoos explores various aspects of tattooing from the symbolism of tattoo motifs to inking methods from their use as means of identification and control to expressions of individualism and defiance providing a fascinating glimpse of the lives of the people behind the records Simon Barnard was born and grew up in Launceston He spent a lot of time in the bush as a boy which led to an interest in Tasmanian history He is a writer illustrator and collector of colonial artifacts He now lives in Melbourne He won the Eve Pownall Award for Information Books in the 2015 Children s Book Council of Australia s Book of the Year awards for his first book A Z of Convicts in Van Diemen s Land Convict Tattoos is his second book The early years of penal settlement have been recounted many times yet Convict Tattoos genuinely breaks new ground by examining a common if neglected feature of convict culture found among both male and female prisoners Australian This niche subject has proved fertile ground for Barnard who is ink free by providing a glimpse into the lives of the people behind the historical records revealing something of their thoughts feelings and experiences Mercury The best thing to happen in Australian tattoo history since Cook landed A must have for any tattoo historian Brett Stewart Australian Tattoo Museum

Probing the Skin Dirk Vanderbeke,Caroline Rosenthal,2015-02-05 Adopting an interdisciplinary approach this volume explores representations of skin in literature art art history visual media and medicine and its history The essays collected here probe the symbolic potential of skin as a shifting sign in various historical and cultural contexts and also examine the material and organic properties of the body s largest organ They deal with skin as a sensual organ as an interface or contact zone as the visual marker of identity and as a lieu de memoire in different periods and media In its material characteristics skin is regarded as a medium a canvas a surface and an object of both artistic and medical investigations The contributions investigate representations of skin in sculpture painting film and fictional as well as non fictional texts from the 16th century to the present The topics addressed here include the problematic representation of racial identity via skin colour in various media the sensual qualities of the skin such as smell or taste the form and function of tattoos as markers of personal as well as collective identity and scars as signifiers of personal pain and collective suffering

Tattoos on the Heart Gregory Boyle,2010-03-09 Destined to become a classic of both urban reportage and contemporary spirituality Los Angeles Times Tattoos on the Heart is a series of parables about kinship and redemption from pastor activist and renowned speaker Father Gregory Boyle For twenty years Father Gregory Boyle has run Homeboy Industries a gang intervention program located in the Boyle Heights neighborhood of Los Angeles also known as the gang capital of the world In Tattoos on the Heart he has distilled his experience working in the ghetto into a breathtaking series of parables inspired by faith From giant tattooed Cesar shopping at JC Penney fresh out of prison you learn how to feel worthy of God s love From ten year old Pipi you learn the importance of being known and acknowledged From Lulu you come to understand the kind of patience necessary to rescue someone from the dark as Father Boyle phrases it we can only shine a flashlight on a light switch in a darkened room This is a motivating look at how to stay faithful in spite of failure how to meet the world with a loving heart and how to conquer shame with boundless restorative love
