Between the Bullets Michael Bliss,2002 Originally a Hong Kong based director John Woo is now considered one of the ten most successful directors working in American films receiving world wide attention for his highly stylized violence in films such as The Killer 1989 Hard Boiled 1992 Face Off 1997 and Mission Impossible 2 2000 While Woo is widely regarded as a master action director scant attention has been paid to the manner in which Woo s films reflect the director s religious and ethical concerns Through an examination of representative films from the director s Hong Kong and American periods Michael Bliss demonstrates that Woo should be regarded as a predominantly religious director in whose films action is the vehicle by virtue of which a concern with spirituality is dramatized Contains a chapter on Chinese opera tradition as relates to Woo s films an exclusive interview with John Woo and a complete filmography

The Secret Life of Puppets Victoria Nelson,2003-11-01 In one of those rare books that allows us to see the world not as we ve never seen it before but as we see it daily without knowing Victoria Nelson illuminates the deep but hidden attraction the supernatural still holds for a secular mainstream culture that forced the transcendental underground and firmly displaced wonder and awe with the forces of reason materialism and science In a backward look at an era now drawing to a close The Secret Life of Puppets describes a curious reversal in the roles of art and religion where art and literature once took their content from religion we came increasingly to seek religion covertly through art and entertainment In a tour of Western culture that is at once exhilarating and alarming Nelson shows us the distorted forms in which the spiritual resurfaced in high art but also strikingly in the mass culture of puppets horror fantasy literature and cyborgs from the works of Kleist Poe Musil and Lovecraft to Philip K Dick and virtual reality simulations At the end of the millennium discarding a convention of the demonized grotesque that endured three hundred years a Demiurgic consciousness shaped in Late Antiquity is emerging anew to re divinize the human as artists like Lars von Trier and Will Self reinvent Expressionism in forms familiar to our pre Reformation ancestors Here as never before we see how pervasively but unwittingly consuming art forms of the fantastic we allow ourselves to believe
