The Magic Of Findhorn:

The Magic of Findhorn Paul Hawken, 1975 Grace, Grit and Gratitude Grace Gawler, 2008 In 1975 Grace Gawler had a promising future A brilliant young vet nurse planning to study veterinary medicine she received a lucrative modelling offer which would have paid her university fees Concurrently her boyfriend lost his leg to bone cancer Grace was at a vital choice point either pursue glamorous well paid modelling work while studying to become a vet or support her boyfriend through his dying months The latter meant foregoing her personal and financial independence and lifelong dreams of becoming a vet Grace chose to support Ian Believing that his cancer was curable she directed her passion into his healing dedicating 18 hour days focussing on juicing massages and pain management whilst researching every cure imaginable With just a few weeks to live Ian proposed Grace accepted taking him to the Philippines for a healing honeymoon the beginning of a long road to recovery He survived and together they established the Gawler Foundation helping thousands of cancer patients gain hope and lead better lives Now a mother of four and with Ian in remission Grace developed her own methods for helping women with breast cancer and authored her first book WOMEN OF SILENCE in 1994 Life was good Disaster struck in 1997 Ian left the family then her own major health crisis began Soon the healer of thousands was struggling for her own life For nine years she battled on with little support Horrendously ill she faced death many times A beautiful woman her shining light was almost extinguished With amazing tenacity drive and passion Grace survived Near death experiences have enhanced her passion for living which bursts through in this book her enthusiasm for life is contagious Her only struggle is to contain the adjectives she uses Now an international wellness leader this modern day heroine inspires all with her story of GRACE GRIT AND GRATITUDE

Secular Beats Spiritual Steve Bruce, 2017-10-20 The decline of the Christian churches in the West is undeniable but commentators differ in their understanding of what this represents For some it shows a decline in interest in religion as such for others religion has not declined it has only changed its shape Possible candidates for Christianity's replacement are the new religious movements of the late 1960s and what is variously called New Age alternative or contemporary spirituality Secular Beats Spiritual offers a detailed study of the religious and spiritual innovations of the last 50 years It assesses their popularity in the UK and concludes that the not decline just change view cannot be sustained Serious interest in spirituality has grown far less quickly than has the number of us who have no religious or spiritual interest The most popular and enduring movements have been the least religious ones and those that have survived have done so by becoming more this worldly and less patently religious or spiritual Yoga is popular but as a secular exercise programme Transcendental Meditation now markets its meditational technique as a purely secular therapy British Buddhists now offer the secular Mindfulness and the Findhorn Foundation Europe's oldest New Age centre is no longer the germ of a counter cultural communalism but sells its expertise to major corporations Steve Bruce also demonstrates that although eastern religious themes such as reincarnation and karma have become more popular as the power of the Christian churches to stigmatise them has declined such themes have also been significantly altered so that what superficially looks like the easternization of the West might better be described as the westernization of the easternization of the West The Magic of Findhorn Gardens Paul Hawken,1975* New Religions Eugene V. Gallagher, Lydia Willsky-Ciollo,2021-02-15 A valuable resource for students and general audiences this book provides a unique global perspective on the history beliefs and practices of emergent faith communities new religious traditions and religious movements worldwide from the 19th century to the present New Religions Emerging Faiths and Religious Cultures in the Modern World provides insightful global perspectives on the emergent faith communities and new traditions and movements of the last two centuries Readers will gain access to the information necessary to explore the significance complexities and challenges that modern religious traditions have faced throughout their history and that continue to impact society today The work identifies the themes and issues that have often brought new religions into conflict with the larger societies of which they are a part Coverage includes new religious groups that emerged in America such as the Seventh day Adventists the Latter day Saints and the Jehovah s Witnesses alternative communities around the globe that emerged from the major Western and Eastern traditions such as Aum Shinrikyo and Al Qaeda and marginalized groups that came to a sudden end such as the Peoples Temple Heaven s Gate and the Branch Davidians The entries highlight thematic and broader issues that run across the individual religious traditions and will also help students analyze and assess the common difficulties faced by emergent religious communities The Magical Language of Runes P. M. H. Atwater,1990 Nature Spirits & Elemental Beings Marko Pogacnik,2012-06-01 Based on firsthand practical experiences of communicating with natural spirits through meditation this eye opening guide to healing the earth teaches how to work with elemental beings by describing each in detail while defining their roles within the web of life As a result of tuning in to plants trees and animals and illustrating the disrupted flow of energies within the landscape the true impact of human culture upon the harmony of the natural world is evocatively revealed Insight into related topics such as how the long suppressed Goddess culture embraces these energies to make strides toward healing the earth can set anyone with earth and landscape concerns gardeners growers designers and builders one step closer toward becoming environmental warriors Changes Soozie Holbeche,1998 How to access our own inner guidance using visualisation meditation and positive thinking and make important changes within ourselves Mysteries of Venus Mark Lerner,1986 Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.
