The Marble Quilt Stories:

The Marble Quilt David Leavitt, 2014-06-03 David Leavitt displays his masterful range his deep emotional intelligence and wit in these nine stories a cosmopolitan selection set variously over the past century from fin de siècle London to early 60s Hollywood from Florida to Rome Here is a survey of human relationships from the most intimate to the most unexpected and human experience veering from the light into the dark as in the title story where a man tries to make sense of his partner's murder and in Black Box about the alliance of two souls left grieving after a plane crash His fourth story collection since he burst onto the scene at age twenty three The Marble Quilt shows Leavitt maturing into one of the most accomplished and agile writers of short fiction today

The New Penguin Book of Gay Short Stories David Leavitt, Mark Lindsey Mitchell, 2003 The diversity and unity of gay love and experience in the 20th century is celebrated in this acclaimed anthology which includes 21 stories from the first edition together with 15 additional tales The texts range from the tender unarticulated longings of D H Lawrence's A Poem for Friendship to the explicitly sexual

AIDS Literature and Gay Identity Monica Pearl, 2013-01-04 This book discusses the significance of late twentieth century and early twenty first century American fiction written in response to the AIDS crisis and interrogates how sexual identity is depicted and constructed textually Pearl develops Freudian psychoanalytic theory in a complex account of the ways in which grief is expressed and worked out in literature showing how key texts from the AIDS crisis by authors such as Edmund White Michael Cunningham Eve Sedgwick and also later the archives of The ACT UP Oral History Project lie both within the tradition of gay writing and a postmodernist poetics The book demonstrates how literary texts both expose and construct personal identity how they expose and produce sexual identities and how gay and queer identities were written onto the page but also constructed and consolidated by these very texts Pearl argues that the division between realist and postmodern and gay and queer respectively is determined by whether the experience expressed and accounted is mediated through the psychoanalytic categories of mourning or melancholia and is marked by a kind of coherence or chaos in the texts themselves This study presents an important development in scholarly work in gay literary studies queer theory and AIDS representation
