Good Mother's Guide to Disciplining Your Child Vicki Poretta, Ericka Lutz, 2002-09 With this informative and entertaining guide moms and parents alike will learn how to discipline their children with reason and confidence

Hidden and found, broken and healed Cheryl Soul2Soul, 2023-01-30 It started with Margreet s desire to flee from her parental home Away from of the realm of control intimidation manipulation and condemnation She applied was accepted left for pension Bloemenzicht It s the start of her LIFE A part of the book Chapter 1 A big step It seemed to be so simple but it wasn t Margreet had decided to pack everything she thought she would need in a month into two suitcases But what should she take with her and what not Yesterday she had received an email from Pension Bloemenhof informing her that she had been hired for a trial month Margreet had been as happy as a child Not so much because of the kind of work it was yet to be seen if she would like it but because she could get away away from her parental home where she'd always felt she somehow didn't fit in. She had walked on tiptoe figuratively to not stand out. She had tried terribly hard to do everything perfectly so that she might fit in after all. But apparently it had never been good enough. At primary school learning was still going well but at secondary school it went wrong. She did more than she could but it felt like she was missing out on everything. She felt rushed and a failure. It wasn't about her mind; she was smart enough but about the pressure from her parents to perform way beyond her capabilities which had killed her. And she had known intuitively: I have to get out of here, away from my parental home, away from well of what. It was still hard to describe and especially hard to accept that her childhood hadn't been what it should have been, to accept that she hadn't gotten what she needed to be herself, to develop herself into who she really was. The therapist she'd been with had called it the burden of intimidation and manipulation, the burden of control. Margreet had recognized it, nodded vigorously as the therapist explained it but she couldn't turn the tide, couldn't stand it, she wasn't able to live the way she wanted to live. Wasn't that another problem? The problem that she didn't really know how she wanted to live, that she didn't know what life was. That she didn't know who she really was and what she really liked. It had upset her for a long time. She'd been torn between possibilities but whatever she'd come up with for and about herself she couldn't figure it out. In the end she had come to only one conclusion: she wasn't able to see herself through her own eyes. She looked as she always had done through her parents' eyes and felt that whatever came to her mind would be disapproved of by them. How on earth was she supposed to get off this treadmill? It felt like a first big step to leave home. She had scoured the internet for a job, applied for all kinds of things without success until she discovered the advertisement from Pension Bloemenhof in a quiet area on the edge of a Limburg village. She'd sensed something that made her feel sure she had to be there and immediately sent her application email and there had been a conviction in her that she would be successful this time. She had no idea why she actually had thought it was quite bizarre but her feeling turned out to be correct. It had been only a few hours before she got an answer back that she could come in for a trial run in November, asking if she was able to come a few days before to explore the guest house and get settled in. It was already the end of October so that would be very soon, just about right away she thought. Ha, nothing better than that. The sooner she could go the better. And it was so ideal she had already understood from the advertisement she could live internally on her own within the guest house, a place of your own within safe walls. She didn't know how it was possible but it already felt that way in advance, like a safe place of her own.

No Mind of Her Own P J Conisboro, 2023-06-23

It should've been simple: meet a girl at college, get a good job, maybe marry and settle down. For Sam Ryder his path was never going to be an easy road. Not only was the brilliant scientist tasked with finding a fix for the devastating Beta Virus but he also had to fight to save his marriage and his girl. With almost seventy-five percent of the world's male population basically rendered impotent, he would have to struggle to prevent his wife from descending into a world where happy marriages are measured not by the husband's ability to sexually please their wives but in their willingness to be cuckolded. Why is this happening? How can his wife turn from loving partner one minute to a depraved porn star the next Something that exists outside the normal boundaries of social acceptance was driving her behaviour all he has to do is find it and stop it Failure will mean one of two things feminisations or death For Sam Ryder neither choices are acceptable Parents ,1998 Speaking Mom-Ese Lisa Whelchel,2005 In Speaking Mom ese Lisa Whelchel shares tales from her own hectic life and the lessons God has shown her along the way to encourage other moms Provided by publisher
