Worthy Engagement:

Redefining Music Studies in an Age of Change Edward W. Sarath, David E. Myers, Patricia Shehan Campbell, 2016-09-13
Redefining Music Studies in an Age of Change Creativity Diversity Integration takes prevailing discourse about change in music studies to new vistas as higher education institutions are at a critical moment of determining just what professional musicians and teachers need to survive and thrive in public life The authors examine how music studies might be redefined through the lenses of creativity diversity and integration which are the three pillars of the recent report of The College Music Society taskforce calling for reform Focus is on new conceptions for existent areas such as studio lessons and ensembles academic history and theory theory and culture courses and music education coursework but also on an exploration of music and human learning and an understanding of how organizational change happens Examination of progressive programs will celebrate strides in the direction of the task force vision as well as extend a critical eye distinguishing between premature proclamations of mission accomplished and genuine transformation The overarching theme is that a foundational systemic overhaul has the capacity to entirely revitalize the European classical tradition Practical steps applicable to wide ranging institutions are considered from small liberal arts colleges to conservatory programs large research universities and regional state universities

Pleroma to Pneumatikon (Romanized Form) John Goodwin, 2022-02-25 Reprint of the original first published in 1867 San Francisco Daily Times, 1901 The Rival Houses of the Hobbs and Dobbs: Or, Dress-makers and Dress-wearers Crotchet CRAYON (pseud.), 1854 The Oxford Handbook of British and Irish War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2007-02-22 Thirty seven chapters written by leading literary critics from across the world describe the latest thinking about twentieth century war poetry The book maps both the uniqueness of each war and the continuities between poets of different wars while the interconnections between the literatures of war and peacetime and between combatant and civilian poets are fully considered The focus is on Britain and Ireland but links are drawn with the poetry of the United States and continental Europe The Oxford Handbook feeds a growing interest in war poetry and offers in toto a definitive survey of the terrain It is intended for a broad audience made up of specialists and also graduates and undergraduates and is an essential resource for both scholars of particular poets and for those interested in wider debates about modern poetry This scholarly and readable assessment of the field will provide an important point of reference for decades to come Plērōma To Pnematikon; Or, A Being Filled with the Spirit John Goodwin (Vicar of St. Stephen's, Coleman Street.), 1867 The Routledge Research Companion to Anthony Trollope Deborah Denenholz Morse, Margaret Markwick, Mark W.
