This Long Thread Jen Hewett, 2021-11-16 Celebrate the diverse work of people of color in the craft community and explore the personal political and creative potential of textile arts and crafts In early 2019 the craft community experienced a reckoning when crafters of color began sharing personal stories about exclusion and racial injustice in their field pointing out the inequity and lack of visible diversity within the crafting world Author Jen Hewett who is one of a few prominent women of color in the fiber crafts community now brings together this book as a direct response to the need to highlight the diverse voices of artists working in fiber arts and crafts Weaving together interviews first person essays and artist profiles This Long Thread explores the work and contributions of people of color across the fiber arts and crafts community representing a wide spectrum of race age region cultural identity education and economic class These conversations explore techniques and materials belonging identity pride of place cultural misappropriation privilege the value or undervaluing of craft community support structures recognition or exclusion intergenerational dialogue and much more Be inspired by the work and stories of innovative people of color who are making exceptional contributions to the world of craft The diverse range of textile artists and craftspeople featured include knitters quilters sewers weavers and more who are making inspiring and innovative work yet who are often overlooked by mainstream media

Lizzo's Black, Female, and Fat Resistance Niya Pickett Miller, Gheni N. Platenburg, 2021-04-29 Celebrated musician and entertainer Lizzo wowed audiences and left many feeling good as hell Notwithstanding her collective fat Black female identity she catapulted into mainstream success while redefining the social script for body size race and gender This book explores a tale of two narratives Lizzo's self curated fat positive identity and the media's reaction to an unabashedly proud fat Black woman This critical analysis examines how Lizzo challenges fatphobia and reconstitutes fat stigmatization into self empowerment through her strategic use of hyper embodiment via social media and the rhetorical distinctions between Lizzo's self curated narrative via social media and those offered about her in print media In part Lizzo's bodily flaunting is argued as a significant rhetorical act that emancipates her identity of fatness and reframes the negative tropes of fat Black women typically curated in American culture
