Theorizing Multiculturalism A Guide To The Current Debate:

Theorizing Multiculturalism Cynthia Willett, 1998-06-08 This wide ranging anthology of classic and newly commissioned essays brings together the major theories of multiculturalism from a multiplicity of philosophical perspectives Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study Modernity, Freedom, and the African Diaspora Elisa Joy White, 2012 Elisa Joy White investigates the contemporary African Diaspora communities in Dublin New Orleans and Paris and their role in the interrogation of modernity and social progress Beginning with an examination of Dublin s emergent African immigrant community White shows how the community s negotiation of racism immigration status and xenophobia exemplifies the ways in which idealist representations of global societies are contradicted by the prevalence of racial ethnic and cultural conflicts within them Through the consideration of three contemporaneous events the deportations of Nigerians from Dublin the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans and the uprisings in the Paris suburbs White reveals a shared quest for social progress in the face of stark retrogressive conditions From Class to Race Charles Mills, 2003-11-19 In From Class to Race Charles Mills maps the theoretical route that brought him to the innovative conceptual framework outlined in his academic bestseller The Racial Contract 1997 Mills argues for a new critical theory that develops the insights of the black radical political tradition While challenging conventional interpretations of key Marxist concepts and claims the author contends that Marxism has been white insofar as it has failed to recognize the centrality of race and white supremacy to the making of the modern world By appealing to both mainstream liberal values and the structuralism traditionally associated with the left Mills asserts that critical race theory can radicalize the mainstream Enlightenment and develop a new kind of contractarianism that deals frontally with race and other forms of social oppression rather than evading them Global Africans Toyin Falola, Cacee Hoyer, 2017-01-20 Black African African descendant and of African heritage are just some of the ways Africans and Africans in the diaspora both old and new describe themselves This volume examines concepts of race ethnicity and identity as they are ascribed to people of colour around the world examining different case studies of how the process of identity formation occurred and is changing Contributors to this volume selected from a wide range of academic and cultural backgrounds explore issues that encourage a deeper understanding of race ethnicity and identity As our notions about what it means to be black or of African heritage change as a result of globalization it is important to reassess how these issues are currently developing and the origins from which these issues developed Global Africans is an important and insightful book useful to a wide range of students and scholars particularly of African studies sociology diaspora studies and race and ethnic studies Transnational Migrations William Safran, Ajaya Sahoo, Brij V. Lal, 2013-10-18 This book studies Indian diaspora currently 20 million across the world from various perspectives It looks at the transnational nature of the middle class worker Other aspects include post 9 11 challenges ethnicity in USA cultural identity versus national identity gender issues amongst the diaspora communities It argues that Indian middle classes have the unique advantages of skills mobility cultural rootedness and ethics of hard work

Cultural Education - Cultural Sustainability Zvi Bekerman, Ezra Kopelowitz, 2008-02-06 This volume is a path breaking contribution to the study of efforts of diaspora indigenous and minority groups broadly defined to use education formal and informal to sustain cultural continuity while grappling with the influences and demands of wider globalizing nationalizing or other homogenizing and assimilatory forces Particular attention is given to groups that use educational elements other than second language teaching alone in programs to sustain their particular cultural traditions The focus of the book on cultural sustainability changes the nature of questions posed in multicultural education from those that address the opening of boundaries to issues of preserving boundaries in an open yet sustainable way As forced and elective immigration trends are changing the composition of societies and the educational systems within them bringing a rich diversity of cultural experience to the teaching learning process diaspora indigenous and minority groups are looking more and more for ways to sustain their cultures in the context of wider socio political influences This volume is a first opportunity to consider critically multicultural efforts in dialogue with educational options that are culturally particularistic but at the same time tolerant Academics will find this an excellent reference book Practitioners will draw inspiration in learning of others efforts to sustain cultures and will engage in critical reflection on their own work vis vis that of others Teachers will realize they do not stand alone in their educational efforts and will uncover new strategies and methodologies through which to approach their work
