Sloping Experience:

The Sloping Experience Ursula Bentley, 1999      Trade and Human Capital Accumulation Dörte Dömeland, 2007

This study provides empirical evidence that trade increases on the job human capital accumulation by estimating the effect of home country openness on estimated returns to home country experience of U S immigrants The positive effect of trade on on the job human capital accumulation remains significant when controlling for GDP educational attainment and institutional quality It is not the result of self selection heterogeneity in returns to experience English speaking origin or cultural background The effect persists when restricting the sample to non OECD countries thereby resolving the theoretical ambiguity of whether trade increases or decreases learning by doing The role of trade in generating economic growth is therefore likely to be more important than generally considered
