about are known and loved by globe trotting fishers from all over the world There are tales of the ghosts of summer summer steelhead that are spotted first by their shadows of winter steelhead on the swung end of a spey cast of motor mooching among the boats gathered at northern saltwater rock walls of the tug of war with galloping halibut Conveying practical information in a lyrical style Reid offers observations and commentary that will appeal to fans of such authors as Roderick Haig Brown Trey Combs James Babb and Nick Lyons Contact information for the fishing lodges featured in the essays is included in an appendix for those who wish to plan trips to these locations

Slowing Time Barbara Mahany, 2014-10-07 Barbara Mahany believes the sacred is all around within finger s reach here to be gathered culled collected through the simple yet complex art of paying attention of savoring the moment of cultivating stillness Making room for the God and illuminating the Godly specks in the everyday Noticing the seen revealing the unseen and pinpointing the divine in both The book sifts through the terrain of three particular landscapes where the author most often encounters the stirrings of the Divine under heaven s dome on the front lines of the homefront and in the unspooling of the seasons The most essential prayer often is the life closely examined held up to the light By probing deeply the nooks and crannies of the home front the author points out that the reader need not venture far to find what matters most And the questions stirred will linger long after the page is turned

The Long Way Home Kate Shayler, 2001 Australia s own Frank McCourt Sally Loane ABC Radio This is an important story that has long been neglected We are familiar with stories of the stolen generation and the British child migrants but there is a third group about whom very little has been written their white Australian contemporaries who as a result of family breakdown court orders or abandonment were institutionalised as children Kate Shayler pseudonym grew up a homes kid in the fifties and sixties Her memoir is more than just an account of her experience as an institutionalised white kid it s a heartbreaking story of what happens to a child in the absence of emotional support and affection Far from being a litany of despair Kate manages to weave into her journey of self discovery a sense of community camaraderie and humour of a childhood of sorts a family that she was forced to create for herself The Long Way Home The Story of a Homes Kid will strike a chord with anyone who has ever suffered discrimination insecurity or the pain of separation from family It s a timely and profound reminder that every child deserves to be cherished and valued New Peterson Magazine ,1873 The National Geographic Magazine ,1922
