Castle Dangerous Walter Scott,2022-05-26 Castle Dangerous is the realisation of a thirty year old project of Scott s to retell a story found in Barbour s Brus Set in the early fourteenth century during the Scottish Wars of Independence an English knight for a love wager commits himself to defend Douglas Castle against Scottish attempts to retake it The ballad like story embraces intriguing elements including national rivalry and the idealisation and betrayal of love The Douglas area seen as an almost surrealist landscape of ravines trenches and tombs and in abysmal weather forms an appropriate setting for an impressively bleak narrative

Count Robert of Paris Walter Scott,2022-05-26 Count Robert of Paris condemned by Scott s printer as altogether a failure was later prepared for publication by his son in law J G Lockhart and his publisher Robert Cadell What appeared was a bowdlerised tamed and tidied version of what Scott had written and dictated This edition the first to have returned to the manuscript and to the many surviving proofs realises Scott s original intentions Scott s last full novel has many roughnesses but it also challenges the susceptibilities of his readers more directly than any other and in that lay its fault in the eyes of the lesser men who condemned it
