Derrida Reader Julian Wolfreys, 2019-08-08 This reader brings together selected complete or self-contained texts which are not generally anthologised particularly those which deal with specifically literary writers and literary topics The collection focuses on a number of texts which address French writers and writers in French such as Valéry Rousseau Lévi Strauss Baudelaire Mallarmé while also addressing other concerns prominent throughout Derrida's career as a writer such as Plato Freud and Marx

A Derrida Reader Jacques Derrida, 1991 This is the only available collection of Jacques Derrida's contributions to philosophy presented with a comprehensive introduction From Speech and Phenomena to the highly influential Signature Event Context each excerpt includes an overview and brief summary

Deconstruction: A Reader Martin McQuillan, 2017-09-25 Philosophers do it literary critics do it even architects poets painters do it It can involve the concepts of capital politics and justice So what after all is deconstruction Deconstruction A Reader makes an answer to this question available in the only way possible by offering a selection of breathtaking range and depth of essential texts With more than sixty selections by fifty contributors including nine pieces by Jacques Derrida this is the ultimate anthology of deconstructive reading demonstrating that deconstruction is vivid surprising varied and true to the text Literary Theories: A Reader and Guide Julian Wolfreys, 2019-08-08 Literary Theories A Reader and Guide is the first reader and introductory guide in one volume Bringing together theoretically orientated readings by leading exponents of literary theory with lucid introductions the book offers the student reader a foundation textbook in literary theory Divided into 12 sections covering structuralism feminism marxism reader response theory psychoanalysis deconstruction post structuralism postmodernism new historicism postcolonialism gay studies and queer theory and cultural studies Literary Theories introduces the reader to the most challenging and engaging aspects of critical studies in the humanities today Each section contains several influential texts that provide discussion of theoretical positions and striking examples of close readings of various works of literature from a number of perspectives The introductions introduce the theory in question discuss its main currents give cross references to other theories and contextualise the readings that follow An indispensable aid to understanding theory Literary Theories is a significant introduction to theoretical approaches to literature Unique combination of an anthology of core texts and a thorough introductory guide Each of the 12 sections contains Several key texts An accessible 5000 word introduction Texts selected for their coverage of themes ie questions of language genre the nature of reading race and gender and author from Shakespeare to Virginia Woolf Three bibliographies an annotated bibliography introducing the reader to the arguments of influential texts in each field a supplementary reading list and a list of works cited Writing London J. Wolfreys, 2004-08-11 Following on from Julian Wolfrey s successful Writing London 1998 this second volume extends Wolfrey s original argument that a new urban sensibility in the nineteenth century had been developed which established new ways of writing about and responding to the city Writing London Volume 2 explores through a range of readings of twentieth century films and texts the complex relationship between the experience of the city the pleasures of the urban text and the solitary nature of these pleasures The book has a broad focus in part dictated not only by the transformation of literary production in the twentieth century but also by the need to respond to the changes in both urban representation and London itself Writers discussed include Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Maureen Duffy Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair and Michael Moorcock The volume covers texts from the late nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth in a critical reading that incorporates the theoretical insights of Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and Jacques Derrida Fictocritical Strategies Gerrit Haas, 2017-02-15 Gerrit Haas re theorises the peculiar textual conduct of ficto critical writing which inextricably intersects fictional with critical discourses as well as aesthetics with poetics and ethics The slash here signals the conjunction between a self reflexive ficto critical insight and a wider discursive ficto critical motivation In its refined form this twofold trope shifts perspective from the prevalent generic between onto the meta generic level of our textual practices Ultimately the ficto critical is thus qualified as an unheard of interventionist aesthetic of deconstruction directed at the ramifications of our textual cultures Rethinking Inclusive Education: The Philosophers of Difference in Practice Julie Allan,2007-11-07 One of the important responsibilities that advocates of inclusion need to continually practise is that of self criticism This includes examining and re examining the assumptions informing our perspectives the concepts that we use including inclusive education and our intentions especially in relation to the question of change We need to beware of the danger of unexamined orthodoxies the possibilities of adding inclusive language with little if any changes in our thinking and practice and a sterile and insensitive position with regard to the pursuit of new or alternative ideas In this very important book Allan powerfully reminds us of the necessity and centrality of these concerns and provides a direct perceptive and thoughtful examination and critique of the varied barriers to the task of how to make inclusion happen Allan challenges the reader to step back and re examine the rationale for inclusion through an alternative mindset She challenges the varied attacks upon inclusion including those in the education business to stop using economic it costs too much and pedagogical it is bad for the other children in the class and traumatic for the disabled children and social just too much for the teacher s workload reasons for closing the door and doing the right thing and those who argue that inclusion was an experiment that did not work Derrida: A Guide for the Perplexed Julian Wolfreys,2007-07-24 This guide provides students with a clear unthreatening introduction to Derrida the key concepts and ideas associated with his work and the major subjects he addresses The Virginia Quarterly Review ,1999 The Palimpsest: Literature, Criticism, Theory Sarah Dillon,2007-12-25 This innovative monograph proposes the concept of the palimpsest as a paradigm for the relationship between theory and traditional literary criticism which could have a major impact on debate surrounding the role of theory in literary studies Marx and the Postmodernism Debates Lorraine Landry,2000-09-30 This book is a meticulous argument for the contemporary value of Marx s democratic theory as an interpretive key for the postmodernism debates Landry uses the works of Derrida Foucault and Lyotard to represent the poststructuralist camp and the writings of Habermas to represent the rationalist camp Viable social critique argues Landry mediates between pure social constructivist and pure realist metaphysics Postmodernism although critical of Marx aided the broader project of critical social theory particularly Marx s critique of social material contexts of oppression Indeed significant positive affiliations among Marx Habermas and the poststructuralists are found in their commitment to criticizing ideological aspects of bourgeois Enlightenment rationality and modernity Landry employs a fruitful tension strategy as seeking rapprochement among the modern and postmodern positions on hotly debated contemporary issues such as subjectivity criticism and the nature of reason Marxism continues to provide critical tools for articulating productive conflict within the postmodernism debates advancing of strategies of critique beyond identity politics toward a more self reflective ideological discussion of the multiple axes of power and oppression in political struggles over democracy In this unique study complex philosophical issues are described lucidly and their relevance for today is established compellingly Teaching Nineteenth-Century Fiction Andrew Maunder, Jennifer Phegley, 2010-02-23 This book offers practical approaches to some of the key issues and challenges involved in teaching nineteenth century fiction at the university level and includes annotated case studies from courses discussions of instances of useful practice in teaching and a helpful chronology nineteenth century writers and texts This new volume in the Teaching the New English series looks at how a core area of the English degree curriculum Victorian fiction can be taught and issues facing lecturers and students in the field today The book has a pedagogical slant though chapters will also be useful for students of Victorian fiction as an overview of current debate

Twentieth-century European Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom, 2001 Presents biographies of the men and women who wrestled with the complex theoretical problems of twentieth century culture Many of the theorists treated in this volume are concerned with the effects of mass culture technology and consumerism Neoplatonism After Derrida Stephen Gersh, 2006 This volume deals with the relation between Derrida and Neoplatonism ancient patristic medieval presenting that relation in the form not only of the actual reading of Neoplatonism by Derrida but also of a hypothetical reading of Derrida by Neoplatonism Handbook on the Knowledge Economy David Rooney, Greg Hearn, Abraham Ninan, 2005 This fascinating Handbook defines how knowledge contributes to social and economic life and vice versa It considers the five areas critical to acquiring a comprehensive understanding of the knowledge economy the nature of the knowledge economy social cooperative cultural creative ethical and intellectual capital knowledge and innovation systems policy analysis for knowledge based economies and knowledge management In presenting the outcomes of an important body of research the Handbook enables knowledge policy and management practitioners to be more systematically guided in their thinking and actions The contributors cover a wide disciplinary spectrum in an accessible way presenting concise to the point discussions of critical concepts and practices that will enable practitioners to make effective research managerial and policy decisions They also highlight important new areas of concern to knowledge economies such as wisdom ethics language and creative economies that are largely overlooked Distinguished by a combination of practical relevance and analytical rigour this Handbook provides new insights into the basic mechanisms that constitute a knowledge economy and society and will be invaluable to practitioners and academics in diverse areas of interest including knowledge management innovation management knowledge policy social epistemology and development studies Levinas and Medieval Literature Ann W. Astell, Justin A. Jackson, 2009 Twelve essays take the unique approach of connecting Christian allegory talmudic hermeneutics and Levinasian interpretation as authors put into dialogue the ethical philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas with a variety of English and rabbinic writings from the Middle Ages thus illuminating what it means to classify medieval texts as profoundly ethical Provided by publisher Dickens to Hardy 1837-1884 Julian Wolfreys, 2007-06-28 An authoritative survey of Victorian fiction which explores the relationship between national identity cultural memory and narratives of the past in major Victorian novels      Annual Review of Information Science & Technology Blaise Cronin,2006-10 ARIST published annually since 1966 is a landmark publication within the information science community It surveys the landscape of information science and technology providing an analytical authoritative and accessible overview of recent trends and significant developments The range of topics varies considerably reflecting the dynamism of the discipline and the diversity of theoretical and applied perspectives While ARIST continues to cover key topics associated with classical information science e g bibliometrics information retrieval editor Blaise Cronin is selectively expanding its footprint in an effort to connect information science more tightly with cognate academic and professional communities
