

A person wearing a green long-sleeved shirt, dark pants, and a brown hat is walking across a large, green-tinted map of the United States. The map is overlaid on a textured, light-colored surface. The person is walking from the left side of the frame towards the right. The word "VOCATION" is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the center of the image, partially overlapping the person and the map. Below the title, the subtitle "DISCERNING OUR CALLINGS IN LIFE" and the author's name "DOUGLAS J. SCHURMAN" are written in smaller, white, sans-serif capital letters.

Vocation Discerning Our Callings In Life:

Vocation Douglas J. Schuurman,2003-12-29 The Protestant doctrine of vocation has had a profound influence on American culture but in recent years central tenets of this doctrine have come under assault Vocation Discerning Our Callings in Life explores current responses to the classic view of vocation and offers a revised statement and application of this doctrine for contemporary North American Christians According to Douglas Schuurman many Christians today find it both strange and difficult to interpret their social economic political and cultural lives as responses to God s calling To renew this biblical perspective Schuurman argues Christians must recover the language meaning and reality of life as vocation and his book helps do just that Developed in dialogue with audiences as diverse as college students industrial workers business leaders church leaders and professional theologians and ethicists the book examines the theological and ethical dimensions of vocation as these have been understood historically and in relation to our modern social setting Discover Your Calling Soo-Inn Tan,2020-10-03 All of us have a yearning to understand where we belong in this world As Christians most of us understand from Scripture that God has a purpose for each of us and has gifted us differently But discovering our unique giftedness and where God calls us to use those gifts eludes so many In his new book Discover Your Calling The ABC of Vocational Discernment Soo Inn Tan provides biblical and down to earth support for those who seek to better understand how God is shaping their lives Whether you re a student entering the workforce a homemaker a mid career worker or a retiree discover how God may be preparing you for the continuing challenge and joy of a lifelong walk with Jesus Christ across all aspects of vocation Living Vocationally Paul J. Wadell,Charles R. Pinches,2021-01-27 In the thick of modern life we are tempted to forget what we are doing and why we are doing it We are busy socializing building careers and looking for fun but what s it all for The ancient concept of vocation has recently gained popularity as we return to questions about the meaning of life Almost all religions include the idea that divine purposes should guide our lives Christianity has particularly accented it The God who called Israel and sent Jesus has something in mind for us God s call challenges us but also opens us to the best sort of life imaginable In Living Vocationally the challenge and the joy of the called life is thoroughly explored Part one considers the benefits of living vocationally biblical traditions of call and subsequent Christian understandings Part two examines why vocation pertains not only to careers but indeed touches every dimension of our lives and encompasses our full journey through life Because every person s life includes many callings some very difficult part three considers the virtues we need to live the called life well Living Vocationally demonstrates why to have found a calling is to have found a good way to live

Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A. Cahalan,2010-08-01 Ministry is often examined in terms of who the minister is not what the minister does But the vocation to ministry must be understood as a call to identity as well as to practice one that is rooted in Jesus life and ministry as well as the Spirit s charisms In Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A Cahalan defines ministerial leadership as carried out through the practices of teaching preaching pastoral care worship social ministry and administration for the sake of nurturing the life of discipleship in the community of believers In her examination of charisms for each of the practices of ministry Cahalan presents readers with a Trinitarian foundation noting that the practices of discipleship and ministry have their origin in the very practices of God Kathleen A Cahalan is associate professor of theology at Saint John s University School of Theology Seminary in Collegeville Minnesota She is author of Formed in the Image of Christ The Sacramental Moral Theology of Bernard H ring Liturgical Press 2004 and Projects That Matter Successful Planning and Evaluation for Religious Organizations Alban Institute 2003 She is the past president of the Association of Practical Theology The Mennonite Quarterly Review ,2009 A Theological Guide to Calvin's Institutes David W.
