Yes Well Help:

Investing in Families United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families, 1992 This hearing chaired by Representative Patricia Schroeder was held to examine historical trends in family structure and family values in light of the recent political debate over family values and their effect on poverty Testimony and prepared statements were given by Representative Schroeder Representative Gerry Sikorski Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan Dr Allan Carlson of the Rockford Institute Rockford Illinois and Professor Stephanie Coontz of Evergreen State College Olympia Washington Participants maintained that historical shifts in family composition challenge conventional wisdom in that family disruption was common in colonial times and that family size has continually decreased It was also maintained that government assistance has failed to keep up with changing needs in that the federal government in the past provided more effective assistance to facilitate home ownership and support health care education and improved working conditions Government programs that once reduced poverty have fallen short in the 1990s due to the fact that the federal government has dedicated an increasingly smaller percentage of the budget to child and family programs MDM
