Supporting The Troops:

A Soldier Supporting Soldiers Joseph Miller Heiser, 1991 War for Profit Charles M. Smith (CPCM.), 2012
WASHINGTON The Army official who managed the Pentagon's largest contract in Iraq says he was ousted from his job when he refused to approve paying more than 1 billion in questionable charges to KBR James Risen New York Times June 17 2008
This book by that very Army official provides an eye opening firsthand account of how the US Government hands over your tax dollars to support contractors like KBR and Halliburton rather than supporting the troops This authoritative and well documented record of the LOGCAP contract in Iraq and Afghanistan is at the same time a study of US participation in Iraq and Afghanistan as well as the workings of government agencies and Congress The first chapter sets the scene briefly narrating the author's work on behalf of US military efforts especially in Iraq Subsequent chapters illustrate specific issues in contractor relations that resulted in unsafe conditions for the troops and blew millions of taxpayer dollars Loyal and hard working government officials and employees who tried to keep things on track were turned away and those who sought to rein in the free for all were sacked The author reveals problems with KBR's provision of transportation electricity food and water Other chapters are more analytic and evaluate Army logistics Congressional oversight and the question of whether letting contracts for this kind of support is appropriate at all the kind of problems that concern military policy leaders defense analysts public policy analysts and scholars in these areas as well as the citizens in whose name this is all done
