The Messenger Armada:

The Tudors Timothy Venning, 2014-05-30 A renowned historian examines some of the most crucial junctions of fifteenth and sixteenth century Britain and how they could have gone differently Timothy Venning's series of alternative histories explores the pathways of British events from the Anglo Saxon Age to the English Civil War In this volume he presents an in depth analysis of the Tudor period As always Venning discusses the fateful moments at which History could easily have taken a different turn In a fascinating series of what if scenarios Venning presents a detailed look at the possible and likely results While necessarily speculative the scenarios are all highly plausible and rooted in a firm understanding of actual events and their context In so doing Venning gives the reader a clearer understanding of the factors at play and why things happened the way they did as well as a tantalizing view of what might have been Key questions discussed in this volume include Did the pretenders Lambert Simnel and Perkin Warbeck ever have a realistic chance of a successful invasion coup If Henry Fitzroy Henry VIII's illegitimate son had not died young might he have been a suitable King What if Edward VI had not died at fifteen but reigned into the 1560s and 70s How might the Spanish Armada have succeeded in landing an army in England and with what likely outcome

Turner, 2012-12-28 Imagine for a moment that legend and fact are two living and breathing entities In legends Atlantis was destroyed by a great flood due to greed For a civilization to be gluttonous they have to be imperialistic A great war would have taken place to destroy such a powerful civilization In fact mankind has learned of civilizations older than the Egyptians and Sumerians Within the last five decades archeologists have learned about the Gobekli Tepe in Turkey and the City of Lord Krishna submerged under the Gulf of Cambay Both cities can date back twelve thousand years ago Right after the Ice Age the world looked different The oceans and seas started to rise four hundred feet due to climate change After the glaciers started to melt Mankind was ready to strive to the next level of its existence Societies and cultures started to expand If a person fuses fact and legend together the result would be the civilization of the Atlantian Empire The Fugger
