Spink & Son's Monthly Numismatic Circular ,1902 The Leopard's Spots Friedemann Golka,2004-10-27 This book refutes three traditional hypotheses which have dominated Old Testament scholarship this century the claim that there were schools in ancient Israel that in these schools a professional class of wise men taught and that their teaching consisted of the moral standards of the civil service Professor Golka disputes the claim of Old Testament scholarship that biblical proverbs were literary works of art much influenced by the civilisations of Egypt and Mesopotamia By comparing biblical proverbs to those of tribal societies of Africa he concludes that the proverbs of the Hebrew Bible derive from a tribal society that of the Israel of the period of the Judges In this ground breaking work Friedemann Golka reveals the extent to which the sources and results of social anthropology can be used in Old Testament scholarship to make significant new findings West African Folktales Richard Spears,1991-10-01 These 123 tales reflect the rich oral tradition of West African folklore Playful and sly they teem with talking animals and shape shifting tricksters with pacts and promises made and broken and with impossible deeds done through chicanery and magic These tales deal with themes common throughout West Africa and the world Indeed American readers will recognize such characters as Brer Rabbit and the tar baby which had their roots in the folklore of this region Because there is no overlay of Western values however some of the morals may surprise the unsuspecting reader murder and polygamy cannibalism and cunning witchcraft and revenge spin matter of factly throughout the stories The Son of the Leopard Harold Courlander,1974 Believed to be the reincarnation of a hated leader a young boy is cast out from his village and wanders performing many heroic deeds until the fulfillment of a prophecy helps him find his true identity
