The Church Trap:

The Church Trap Arthur Herzog III, Arthur Herzog, 2003-04-20 Churches today are caught in a sociological trap Parishioners want to keep comfortable status quo organization Churchmen feel the pressure to modernize to get where the action is This book is a provocative and zesty analysis of the problem Dishonest to God The churches have followed corporations in emphasizing fat figures and solid annual growth If religion were sold like stocks you would have the high fliers like the booming Southern Baptists and the Roman Catholics the blue chip denominations Episcopalians Congregationalists and Presbyterians and then those with small growth potential like the Jews The sick clergy Most clergymen of the various faiths needless to say are not alcoholic or homosexual On the other hand enough clergymen have these problems to cause concern and beyond the slippery labels of neuroses there are enough inward tortured people in the clergy to make church authorities wonder what in heaven is wrong The future One of the basic models for churchly change is ecumenism but although ecumenism may look good on the drawing board it has some very formidable hurdles before it There is no sign in the heavens that the organized religion in America will be granted a resurrection The Emerging Church Trap Steve Wohlberg, 2015-03-01 Yet again author Steve Wohlberg artfully tackles a huge subject in just a handful of words He brings into focus the seemingly nebulous topic of the emerging church movement by joining Scripture with history Jesus Himself firmly noted to His disciples Take heed that no man deceive you For many shall come in my name saying I am Christ and shall deceive many Matthew 24 45 The author makes Christ's solemn warning personal in that you not only meant the disciples but Christ was speaking directly to you the reader Emerging church proponents maintain that a change is needed in the church today otherwise many will be lost They believe that changes need to be made in churches today to appeal to the electronically minded and to keep up with the times Yet the God of the heavens exclaims I am the Lord I do not change Malachi 3 6 The changes that emerging church advocates such as Leonard Sweet Brian McLaren Richard Foster and others endorse are not really new In fact they are steeped in the Eastern mystic philosophies of Hinduism Buddhism and especially that of medieval Rome Eastern meditation is an attempt to empty the mind Richard Foster wrote in his book Celebration of Discipline Those partisan to the emerging church doctrine look to Ignatius Loyola who established the Society of Jesus or the Jesuits as their founding father Inside a cave in Manresa Spain Ignatius emptied his mind The otherworldly impressions did come from a ghostly entity claiming to be the Virgin Mary That ghost gave directions Fine Loyola decided I will obey The Emerging Church Trap page 24 Christ spoke directly to the danger of emptying our minds in the book of Matthew When an unclean spirit goes out of a man he goes through dry places seeking rest and finds none Then he says I will return to my house from which I came And when he comes he finds it empty swept and put in order Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself and they enter and dwell there and the last state of that man is worse than the first So shall it also be with this wicked generation Matthew 12 43 45 Where Have All the Church Members Gone?
