The Way of Ethical Humanism Gerald A. Larue,1989-01-01      The Humanist Way Edward L. Ericson,1988

Humanism Nicolas Walter,2010-10-05 What is a humanist After an introduction to the earliest ideas of and terms for humanism in the ancient world noted humanist Nicolas Walter explores the history of humanism and its evolving definitions from the time of the original appearance and first meanings of humanist in the Italian Renaissance concluding with a manifesto of modern humanism Drawing on personal experience and information from more than 400 sources this is the first full length treatment of the subject      The Moral Rights of Animals Mylan Engel Jr.,Gary Lynn Comstock,2016-03-16 Edited by Mylan Engel Jr and Gary Lynn Comstock this book employs different ethical lenses including classical deontology libertarianism commonsense morality virtue ethics utilitarianism and the capabilities approach to explore the philosophical basis for the strong animal rights view which holds that animals have moral rights equal in strength to the rights of humans while also addressing what are undoubtedly the most serious challenges to the strong animal rights stance including the challenges posed by rights nihilism the kind argument against animal rights the problem of predation and the comparative value of lives In addition contributors explore the practical import of animal rights both from a social policy standpoint and from the standpoint of personal ethical decisions concerning what to eat and whether to hunt animals Unlike other volumes on animal rights which focus primarily on the legal rights of animals and unlike other anthologies on animal ethics which tend to cover a wide variety of topics but only devote a few articles to each topic this volume focuses exclusively on the question of whether animals have moral rights and the practical import of such rights The Moral Rights of Animals will be an indispensable resource for scholars teachers and students in the fields of animal ethics applied ethics ethical theory and human animal studies as well as animal rights advocates and policy makers interested in improving the treatment of animals

exclusions of previous definitions of humanism this volume examines the human problems dilemmas fears and aspirations expressed in literature as a fundamentally humanist art form and activity Divided into three overarching categories this companion will explore the histories developments debates and contestations of humanism in literature and deliver fresh definitions of the new humanism for the humanities This focus aims to transcend the boundaries of a world in which human life is all too often defined in terms of restrictions political economic theological intellectual and lived in terms of obedience conformity isolation and fear The Routledge Companion to Humanism and Literature will provide invaluable support to humanities students and scholars alike seeking to navigate the relevance and resilience of humanism across world cultures and literatures

Humanism in the Music of Fela and the Dehumanization of the Nigerian Proletariat Class Philip Edema, 2023-09-21 Seminar paper from the year 2023 in the subject African Studies African diaspora course African Political Philosophy language English abstract It is an indisputable fact that the myriad of problems in Nigeria today in the areas of politics religion security and economy are a reflection of dearth of good governance There have been conceited efforts by pundits on means that could bring about a viable polity yet to no avail The liberals have called for restructuring while the radicals believe it is outright dissolution of the Union that can ameliorate the pauperisation exploitation and crass dehumanisation of the citizenry However these suggestions have not addressed the trajectory of the problem thereby making them limited in addressing the issues This paper therefore examines the contributions of the famous Nigerian Afrobeat music maestro Fela Anikulapo Kuti especially as it concerns the dehumanisation of the proletariat class by the elites in Nigeria The song Teacher Don t Teach Me Nonsense among others in Fela s musical repertoire was purposefully selected to interrogate the problematic More so the research adopted the hermeneutic analytic critical and reconstructive methods of philosophy in achieving its aim While the method of hermeneutics helped in decoding and applying the deeply embedded messages in Fela s music the analytic method aided in clarifying concepts like humanism governance exploitation dehumanisation and oppression The critical method was employed to examine hitherto attempts on same issue and finally the method of reconstruction helped to situate Fela s relevance and efforts in addressing the issue of dearth of good governance in Nigeria

The work concluded that it is only when the political leadership responds to Fela's call for class deconstruction would Nigeria witness the kind of governance that would transform the quality of lives of the citizenry
