Torah Thoughts Six:

Perspectives on Jewish Thought and Mysticism Alfred L. Ivry, Elliot R. Wolfson, Allan Arkush, 2013-10-28 First Published in 1998 This is the proceedings of the International Conference held by The Institute of Jewish Studies University College London 1994 in Celebration of its Fortieth Anniversary Dedicated to the memory and academic legacy of its Founder Alexander Altmann Dogma in Medieval Jewish Thought Menachem Kellner, 2004-07-22 An important contribution to the history of dogma in Judaism and to the history of fifteenth century Jewish thought in particular Chava Tirosh Rothschild Critical Review A work of serious scholarship It will no doubt become the standard work on the subject for many years to come Jewish Book News Reviews A detailed analysis of Maimonides's position and its aftermath a scholarly analysis Kellner steers us deftly through the complex argument His is the most thorough treatment so far of this still relevant chapter in the history of Jewish thought Jonathan Sacks L Eylah The Law and the Knowledge of Good and Evil Chris A. Vlachos, 2009-01-01 First Corinthians 15:56 The sting of death is sin and the power of sin is the law is both puzzling and neglected It is puzzling since there appears to be no precursor in 1 Corinthians to the law critical statement found there It is neglected because of its size Nevertheless the short verse offers the opportunity to analyze in a rudimentary state Paul's law sin notion that appears full blown in Romans and the absence of a polemical setting allows scholars to examine a law critical statement issued during a polemical lull In The Law and Knowledge of Good and Evil Vlachos weighs attempts to explain the presence of 1 Cor 15:56 in 1 Corinthians and argues that the Genesis Fall narrative where the tempter plied his seductions by way of the commandment provides the theological substructure to Paul's understanding of the law's provocation of sin In doing so Vlachos contends that Paul reaches the historical high water mark of his polemic against the salvific efficacy of the law by locating a law sin nexus in Eden and contrary to some recent perspectives on Paul he argues that the edenicly informed axiom in 1 Cor 15:56 suggests that Paul's fundamental concern with the law was rooted in primordial rather than ethnic soil While studies of Paul and the law have tended to bypass Eden The Law and Knowledge of Good and Evil breaks ground by moving the argument beyond Second Temple Judaism to the Genesis Fall account where the prohibition against partaking of the knowledge of good and evil led to the knowledge of sin Talmud Bavli: Seder Mo'ed.
