Agricultural Experiment Station,1925 Peckerwood Grape ,2005-09 This is a metaphorical story based on a true story of a Woodpecker in his search for freedom and purpose What he did not realize that freedom had a price that almost cost his life on more than one occasion In the Woodpeckers journey from childhood being discontent that he had to live in a hole and with his arrangement of feathers He sought out many different birds One summer afternoon the young Woodpecker and two Geese that he had became friends with discovered the forbidden fruit of young fowl the Grape alcohol The Grape was the answer to all the fears in the world The Grape had power and gave him freedom from his mind After the Woodpeckers first escape from reality He was addicted to Grapes In his pursuit of what He thought happiness was like things of this material world for instance gold diamonds and seed which is money The Woodpeckers becomes dishonest to himself and others therefore erects the walls of jails Being a jailbird with contempt prior to investigation he learns to resent and hate Blackbirds from other birds that were not black and known as Peckerwoods Hence He becomes a Peckerwood as well After getting out of jail the Woodpecker finds himself in a deep and always progressive state of addiction He resents everything in this vast world and is beyond buzzed The place where the Grape use to take him joyous intimacy with friends grandiose ideas and freedom was not there He often proceeded to go beyond boundaries set in the normal society of birds who could partake in the Grape After the Woodpeckers second trip to see the Grey Parrots doctors The Parrots inform him that he has chronic Grapism alcoholism and that there is no cure for thisdisease Although there is hope and it is called Grapes anonymous There He meets a Blackbird the very one he learned to hate in jail yet never knew why The Blackbird informs him that the only solution to addiction is from a loving God After going through the same spiritual steps the Blackbird went through to recover He s overcome with God s grace joy love and peace flow within him He feels unconditional love for the blackbird He sees love in the very air that gives him life The Woodpecker became to believe in God utterly abandons himself to God and discovers himself whom He always was a child of God Peckerwood Grape the Woodpecker In His tumultuous journey from fear to faith He was given a new life and transformed into a breathtaking new world where even the broken paths he flew made sense He finds purpose in a life that was merely an existence He takes action and uses his pecker to carve stories and peck pictures to help others know about and to recover from this fatal disease It s by giving the gifts he has received through God the fruits of the spirit and a life where all things are new he is blessed As a result of loving God with all his heart mind body and soul He receives an incredibly abundant life beyond His hearts desires
