New Perspectives on Turkey-EU Relations Chris Rumford,2014-10-29 This book makes the case for looking afresh at Turkey EU relations in order to appreciate the richness and complexity of a relationship which is now more than 50 years old and is still not close to reaching fulfilment The contributors challenge conventional attempts to understand Turkey EU relations revealing that EU integration studies has been rather poor at understanding the global context within which Turkey EU developments take place More surprising perhaps EU integration studies has also struggled to give sufficient weight to the potential of Turkey's domestic politics to shape EU enlargement The volume attempts to correct these imbalances by offering both a global context and new perspectives on the drivers of domestic politics It represents a shift from a narrow EU integration enlargement agenda Turkey's position vis a vis the EU cannot be adequately captured by simplistic notions of conditionality harmonization and an uncritical interpretation of Europeanization A more rounded view of Turkey EU relations is advanced based upon a broader context of European and global transformations The contributions collected here offer an interpretation of Turkey EU relations from a novel perspective utilize a new framework of theory and draw upon insights and perspectives from disciplines underrepresented in mainstream study of Turkey EU relations This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies
