Turkish Art And Architecture:

Turkish Art and Architecture Giovanni Curatola, 2010-11-02 This vibrantly illustrated volume chronicles nearly a millennium of Islamic art and architecture in Turkey Illustrated with some 250 attractive and well chosen color photographs Turkish Art and Architecture is fascinating reading for anyone with an interest in Turkey and an essential reference for any student of Islamic art and architecture The Anatolian peninsula one of the oldest seats of civilization has been ruled by a succession of great powers including the Romans and their successors in the East the Byzantines Its Islamic era began in 1071 when the Seljuk Turks nomads from Central Asia who had already taken control of Persia defeated the Byzantine army at Manzikert and moved west creating a new sultanate in Anatolia The Seljuks were eventually succeeded in this region by the Ottoman Turks who crossed the Bosphorus to conquer an exhausted Constantinople in 1453 and went on to extend their power far beyond the borders of modern Turkey establishing an empire that endured until the early twentieth century Ruling over a land that had always been at the crossroads of east and west these Islamic dynasties developed a cosmopolitan art and architecture As art historian Giovanni Curatola demonstrates in this insightful new book they combined elements of the prestigious Persian style and memories of their nomadic past with local Mediterranean traditions and also adopted local building materials such as stone and wood Curatola introduces us first to the new types of buildings introduced by the Seljuks like the caravansary and the türbe or mausoleum and then to the sophisticated architectural achievements of the Ottomans which culminated in the great domed mosques constructed by the master builder Mimar Sinan d 1588 He also traces the history of the decorative arts in Turkey which included lavishly ornamented carpets manuscripts armor and ceramics

Turkish Art and Architecture in Anatolia & Mimar Sinan Selçuk Mülayim, 2005 This book is an attempt to outline the development of art and architecture in Anatolia While covering the works made possible by this genius who holds an unsurpassed position in the history of Turkey as well as the handicrafts of the same period each in their own sections the book tries to highlight both the architectural currents existing prior to Sinan and those architectural creations in Post Sinan periods that remained faithful to his legacy The final section rounds out by discussing such traditional art forms as woodworking metal working tilemaking cloth miniatures carpets hat calligraphy and tezhip gold gilding or illumination which served as complementary elements of architecture
