Tuskegee and Its People: Their Ideals and Achievements (1905). Edited By: Booker T. Washington Booker T. Washington,2017-03-10 Booker Taliaferro Washington April 5 1856 November 14 1915 was an American educator author orator and advisor to presidents of the United States Between 1890 and 1915 Washington was the dominant leader in the African American community Washington was from the last generation of black American leaders born into slavery and became the leading voice of the former slaves and their descendants They were newly oppressed in the South by disenfranchisement and the Jim Crow discriminatory laws enacted in the post Reconstruction Southern states in the late 19th and early 20th centuries Washington was a key proponent of African American businesses and one of the founders of the National Negro Business League His base was the Tuskegee Institute an historically black college in Alabama As lynchings in the South reached a peak in 1895 Washington gave a speech known as the Atlanta compromise which brought him national fame He called for black progress through education and entrepreneurship rather than trying to challenge directly the Jim Crow segregation and the disenfranchisement of black voters in the South Washington mobilized a nationwide coalition of middle class blacks church leaders and white philanthropists and politicians with a long term goal of building the community

s economic strength and pride by a focus on self help and schooling But secretly he also supported court challenges to segregation and restrictions on voter registration passing on funds to the NAACP for this purpose Black militants in the North led by W E B Du Bois at first supported the Atlanta compromise but after 1909 they set up the NAACP to work for political change They tried with limited success to challenge Washington s political machine for leadership in the black community but also built wider networks among white allies in the North Decades after Washington s death in 1915 the Civil Rights movement of the 1950s took a more active and militant approach which was also based on new grassroots organizations based in the South such as CORE SNCC and SCLC Booker T Washington mastered the nuances of the political arena in the late 19th century which enabled him to manipulate the media raise money develop strategy network push reward friends and distribute funds while punishing those who opposed his plans for uplifting blacks His long term goal was to end the disenfranchisement of the vast majority of African Americans who then still lived in the South Tuskegee Its People is a 1905 book edited by American educator Booker T Washington Tuskegee & Its People Booker T.

Washington,2017-10-09 So much has been said about Tuskegee Institute as a training school in which to prepare young colored men and women for earning a living in the world of trade and business that the ideals and spirit behind all this training are to a very large extent lost sight of Tuskegee with its hundreds of acres of farm land under intelligent cultivation with its ever increasing number of well appointed buildings and its equipment and the many things on the grounds included in the name of handicrafts is always in the public eye and continually appeals to the interest of those who are deeply concerned in the well being and progress of the Negro people Yet behind all of these more tangible manifestations of work skill and achievement there is an unseen persistent groping after the higher ideals of life and living No one can remain long on the grounds as an intelligent observer of all that is to be here seen and felt without recognizing that the things that are not written in the catalogue and not a part of the daily program of activities are real vital and of far reaching importance
