R. Streitberger, 1994 In 1545 Henry VIII created a Revels Office within the royal household and appointed Sir Thomas Cawarden one of the gentlemen of the Privy Chamber as its Master In so doing he set a precedent for the production of revels at court for the next century Some historians have only recently examined the revels in their historical context but none has attempted as W R Streitberger does to study court entertainments in terms of the growth and development of the Revels organization and its adaptation to different political climates at court Streitberger presents evidence in the form of a calendar of court entertainments and appendices based on the primary documents he provides an explanation of their occasion form and purpose of these entertainments in their historical context and he explains the development of the revels organization from the temporary appointment of producers at the beginning of their period into a government office by the mid sixteenth century Streitberger details the adaptation of the Revels organization to the very different courts of the various monarchs and explains how their personalities principles and policies shaped that adaptation Paperbound Book Guide for Colleges ,1964 El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006

Shakespeare's Greatest Love David Medina,2025-04-22 Relying on historical and literary evidence hidden in plain sight Shakespeare s Greatest Love tells the true uncensored love story of William Shakespeare and Henry Wriothesley 3rd Earl of Southampton Shall I compare thee to a summer s day Thou art more lovely and more temperate Shakespeare s Sonnet 18 written for and about Southampton Leaving behind a wife and three young children in Stratford upon Avon Shakespeare moved to London for its thrilling theater scene where everyone mixed freely across ages classes and ranks It was through their mutual passion for the theater that the handsome twenty seven year old playwright first met and fell deeply in love with the effeminate seventeen year old earl who beguiled men and women alike and avowed that desire and pleasure should sometimes triumph over reason Author David Medina demonstrates that Shakespeare wrote more of his plays and poems for and about Southampton than anyone else works that are sexually charged romantic and homoerotic He also chronicles the evidence that Southampton provided Shakespeare the support he needed to secure his acting company share coat of arms family residence royal commission life portrait and funerary bust Shakespeare and Southampton s personal and professional relationship evolved privately and publicly over a quarter century against the backdrop of a national anti sodomy law multiple plague outbreaks unexpected pregnancies rushed and possibly forced marriages a failed rebellion and political imprisonments Shakespeare s Greatest Love challenges us all to recognize Southampton as the individual who had the most significant impact on Shakespeare s life literature and legacy The New Oxford

World Museum Publications 1982, 1982 The Masters of the Revels and Elizabeth I's Court Theatre W. R. Streitberger, 2017-08-17 The Masters of the Revels and Elizabeth I's Court Theatre places the Revels Office and Elizabeth I's court theatre in a pre-modern patronage and gift exchange driven world of centralized power in which hospitality liberality and conspicuous display were fundamental aspects of social life W R Streitberger reconsiders the relationship between the biographies of the Masters and the conduct of their duties rethinking the organization and development of the Office re-examining its productions and exploring its impact on the development of the commercial theatre The nascent capitalist economy that developed alongside and interpenetrated the gift driven system that was in place during Elizabeth's reign became the vehicle through which the Revels Office along with the commercial theatre was transformed Beginning in the early 1570s and stretching over a period of twenty years this change was brought about by a small group of influential Privy Councillors When this project began in the early 1570s the Queen's revels were principally in house productions devised by the Master of the Revels and funded by the Crown When the project was completed in the late 1590s the Revels Office had been made responsible for plays only and put on a budget so small that it was incapable of producing them That job was left to the companies performing at court Between 1594 and 1600 the revels consisted almost entirely of plays brought in by professional companies in the commercial theatres in London These companies were patronized by the queen's relatives and friends and their theatres were protected by the Privy Council Between 1594 and 1600 for example all the plays in the revels were supplied by the Admiral's and Chamberlain's Players which included writers such as Shakespeare and legendary actors such as Edward Alleyn Richard Burbage and Will Kempe The queen's revels essentially became a commercial enterprise paid for by the ordinary Londoners who came to see these companies perform in selected London theatres which were protected
