Shadow Exchanges: The B2B Architecture of Swap Execution Facilities Richard Bowman, 2016-03-27 The 2008 financial crisis was notoriously triggered by massive unregulated over the counter derivatives traded in the dark between global banks In the catastrophic aftermath regulators demanded absolute transparency forcing the creation of an entirely new highly obscure financial infrastructure Swap Execution Facilities SEFs SEFs are heavily regulated digital B2B trading platforms exclusively designed for the trading of incredibly complex swaps such as interest rate and credit default swaps Unlike public stock exchanges where retail investors buy shares these platforms cater strictly to institutional behemoths moving trillions of dollars This book pulls back the curtain on this bespoke financial plumbing We explore the intense technological requirements the strict anonymity protocols and the algorithmic matching engines that finally brought sunlight to the world's most dangerous financial instruments The narrative dissects how these platforms mathematically mitigate systemic risk across the entire global economy Enter the hidden arena of institutional finance Understand the highly fortified digital exchanges that quietly execute the massive trades holding the global banking system together Financial Management:

Brazen: Big Banks, Swap Mania And The Fallout A Rashad Abdel-khalik, 2019-02-15 For nearly two decades countless non profits in the U S were forced to pay big banks enormous sums of money to settle or terminate bilateral contracts known as Interest Rate Swaps IRSs Officials at non profits had entered into these costly contracts unaware that each contract has only one winner and that big banks did not intend to be the losers The effects of such monetary transfers have been catastrophic Money strapped non profits had to dismiss schoolteachers shut off water supply to thousands of poor households and downsize many other essential public services Local and state governments public school districts universities hospitals and transit authorities from New York to Los Angeles have been among the largest hit This book presents selected cases and highlights the lack of evidence that decision makers at non profits had fully understood the terms and complexities of IRSs The evident unequal bargaining power thus gives rise to the high likelihood of unconscionable contracting Additionally for terminating these contracts big banks collected huge sums of money for services that had not been and will never be rendered Accordingly questions arise as to whether these termination payments are tantamount to unjust enrichment Related Link s
