Understanding Old Age Critical And Global Perspectives:

Understanding Old Age Gail Wilson,2000 Politics and Old Age John A. Vincent,Guy Patterson,Karen

Wale,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Older people have been characterized by two mutually contradictory stereotypes One the one hand they have been portrayed as a powerful lobby growing demographically and able to demand large redistributions of the nation s income in their direction On the other hand they have been typified as a marginalized group at high risk of poverty and exclusion and in a political context largely powerless This book examines using original research conducted by the Older People and Politics Project OPPOL within Exeter University s Sociology Department the reality of the impact of the increasing number of older people on the British political process The project had three main investigative concerns how effective are pressure groups and lobbyists for older people how is the power and influence of older people perceived by older people themselves and the general public and how are politicians responding to older people and their needs

Reciprocity and Dependency in Old Age Sue Thompson,2013-04-18 This book highlights 1 the significance of reciprocity for the maintenance of self esteem in old age and 2 the negative implications for the well being of dependent older people when that significance goes unrecognized and as a consequence opportunities to give back to society as well as take from it are not facilitated by those in a position to do so The discussion draws on research undertaken in the UK and Southern India into the extent to which having the self perception of being valued in the world is important to older people in receipt of care support and whether in their experience this is recognized by others The author presents an analysis of theoretical insights from leading thinkers across a broad range of literature and from several disciplines including social theory social work philosophy and gerontology The author also gives voice to the perspectives of those dependent older people not often heard because of marginalizing and disempowering processes that contribute to their having little opportunity to be heard in the first place The emphasis of this book is on aspiration to a meaningful life and continuing personal growth as offering a challenge to dominant discourses the equate old age with decline

Old Age John Vincent,2003-12-08 Recent decades have seen a fundamental change in the age structure of many western societies In these societies it is now common for a fifth to a quarter of the population to be retired for fewer babies to be born than is required to sustain the size of the population and for life expectancy to exceed eighty years old This book provides an overview of the key issues arising from this demographic change

Old Age in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht Classen,2012-02-14 After an extensive introduction that takes stock of the relevant research literature on Old Age in the Middle Ages and the early modern age the contributors discuss the phenomenon of old age in many different fields of late antique medieval and early modern literature history and art history Both Beowulf and the Hildebrandslied both Wolfram von Eschenbach s Parzival and Titurel both the figure of Merlin and the trans European tradition of Perceval Peredur Parzival then the figure of the vetula in a variety of medieval French English and Spanish texts and of the Old Man in The Stricker s Daniel both the treatment of old age in Langland s Piers the Plowman and in Jean Gerson s sermons are dealt with Other aspects involve late antique epistolary literature early modern French farce in light of Disability Studies the social role of old impotent men in sixteenth and seventeenth century Netherlandish paintings and the scientific discourse of old age and health since the 1500s The discourse of Old Age proves to have been of central importance throughout the ages so the critical examination of the issues involved sheds intriguing light on the cultural history from late antiquity to the seventeenth century

Sociology of Ageing Gavin J. Andrews,Ajaya Kumar Sahoo,Sebastian Irudaya Rajan,2009 Over the past thirty years the sociological study of ageing has progressed from being a narrowly focused modestly sized problem orientated sub field of disciplinary inquiry to its current status as a distinct extremely wide ranging endeavor that deals with many aspects of older peoples economic social and cultural lives This volume brings together a broad range of theoretical essays and specific case studies by eminent scholars in the field Sociology of Ageing A Reader will be a useful resource for not only sociology students and professional sociologists but also for those based in social anthropology psychology geography population studies politics and cultural studies

Quest ,2007

The Myth of Work-Life Balance Richenda Gambles,Suzan Lewis,Rhona Rapoport,2006-04-24 Many regard the ways in which paid work can be combined or balanced with other parts of life as an individual concern and a small rather self indulgent problem in today s world Some feel that worrying about a lack of time or energy for family relationships or friendships is a luxury or secondary issue when compared with economic growth or development In the business world and among many Governments around the world the importance of paid work and the primacy of economic competitiveness whatever the personal costs is almost accepted wisdom Profits and short term efficiency gains are often placed before social issues of care or human dignity But what about the impact this has on men and women s well being or the long term sustainability of people families society or even the economy Drawing from interviews and group meetings in seven diverse countries India Japan the Netherlands Norway South Africa the UK and USA this book explores the multiple difficulties in combining paid work with other parts of life and the frustrations people experience in diverse settings There is a myth that work life balance can be achieved through quick fixes rather than challenging the place of paid work in people s lives and the way work actually gets done As well as exploring contemporary problems this book attempts to seed hope and new ways of thinking about one of the key challenges of our time

The Need for Theory Simon Biggs,Ariela Lowenstein,Jon Hendricks,2003 The Need for Theory speaks to the burgeoning need for critical thinking in social gerontology The editors have brought together some of the foremost contributors to theoretical advances in the field This volume incorporates state of the art theorizing with a focus on selected topical areas facing gerontologists around the world Using their keen insights into substantive issues the contributors examine personal and structural changes affecting individuals over the life course Extolling the heed for theory is not enough the contributors focus their insights on a panoply of substantive issues linking the personal with the political and with the structural parameters that shape the process of aging no matter where it occurs

Black Issues in Social Work and Social Care Mekada Graham, 2007 Over several decades anti oppressive practice and anti discriminatory perspectives have become an integral part of social work Responding to an urgent need for an up to date text that addresses recent developments this book charts the impact of social changes and new literature shaping social work theory and practice with black and minority individuals families and communities It builds upon popular texts addressing anti discriminatory frameworks but focuses specifically upon black perspectives in social work taking into account current issues and concerns Written specifically for a US and UK market the book provides an excellent introductory text to social work with black and minority ethnic communities for students lecturers practice teachers assessors who are engaged in examining anti discriminatory practice frameworks and black perspectives in academic settings and practice learning It will support curriculum based learning through its focus on anti discriminatory practice in a climate that appears less sympathetic to the multicultural nature of British society

Negotiating Death in Contemporary Health and Social Care Margaret Holloway, 2007 This book brings together perspectives from social science health care and pastoral theology looking at the way death is handled in contemporary society and the sensitive ethical and practical dilemmas facing nurses social workers doctors and chaplains

Gender in Latin America Sylvia H. Chant, Nikki Craske, 2003 Gender impacts on every major social issue from rights to social policy from ethnicity to poverty this work examines trends in gender over history until the present

Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Robert H. Binstock, Linda K. George, 1996 The Fourth Edition of the Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences reflects the growth of ideas information and research literature on the social aspects of aging Building upon the first three editions the Handbook is substantially expanded with 25 new and distinguished contributors and nearly a dozen new topics Intended for use by researchers professional practitioners and students in the field of aging the Handbook is divided into four sections covering theory and research methodology aging and social structure social factors and social institutions associated with aging and social interventions Suitable as both a textbook and a reference tool the Handbook represents a comprehensive source for information on aging and the social sciences

Old Age in Global Perspective Steven Mark Albert, Maria G. Cattell, 1994 Old Age in Global Perspective examines old age around the world by drawing on data from two major sources ethnographic anthropological field research and cross national surveys The authors use biologic demographic and sociocultural approaches to amplify our understanding of variations in individuals experiences of aging and old age in the modern context of aging populations Elders living arrangements intergenerational experiences social relationships and progression through the life course are extensively discussed as are the effects of modernization on late life Conclusions are formulated as brief summary discussions by topic and twenty three specific hypotheses are suggested for future research This volume will be a valuable reference for professionals and advanced
