Understanding Ourselves Ellen Andrews Knodt,1996 Understanding Ourselves is a multicultural reader for basic writers built around the theme of personal identity This flexible text encourages active reading through high interest accessible essays short stories and poems on the theme of identity and links the complementary functions of reading and writing

Understanding Ourselves Ellen Andrews Knodt,1996 WPA, Writing Program Administration ,1994 Being Self-Study Researchers in a Digital World Dawn Garbett,Alan Ovens,2016-09-13 This book presents research on the intersection of self study research digital technologies and the development of future oriented practices in teacher education It explores the changing teacher education landscape by considering issues that are central to doing self study context and location data access generation and analysis social and personal media forms and transformations of pedagogy identity and ethics in an increasingly digital world Self study research on with and around digital technologies is highly significant in education where the rapid development and ubiquity of such technologies are an integral part of teacher educators everyday pedagogical and research practices Blended and virtual environments are now not only commonplaces in which to teach about teaching but also to research about teaching The book highlights how digital technologies can enhance the pedagogies and knowledge base of teacher education research and practice while remaining circumspect of grandiose claims Each chapter addresses aspects of doing self study with educational technology and provides issues for discussion and debate for readers wanting to engage in self study The Cumulative Book Index ,1996 A world list of books in the English language

The Promise and Perils of Writing Program Administration Theresa Enos,Shane Borrowman,2008-01-26 Combining formal quantitative research with narrative based scholarship THE PROMISE AND PERILS OF WRITING PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION represents multiple voices from faculty balancing between the demands of teaching writing and administering writing programs in professional ethical ways often under circumstances that can be defined at best as difficult In these pages junior faculty tell their stories of triumph and trauma while more firmly established composition scholars reflect upon the changing and challenging profession we all share Journal of Developmental Education ,2017

Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 The Writing Circle Sylvia Gunnery,2007 Writing circles empower students with a cooperative learning environment They provide teachers with opportunities to observe advise learn teach and take part in discussion This exciting new book offers everything you need to know about forming writing circles including sample lessons learning goals revision techniques and tips for encouraging the use of reference tools American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Resources in Education ,1985 Self-assessment and Development in Writing Jane Bowman Smith,Kathleen Blake Yancey,2000 This collection explores student self assessment and its role in the development of writing Chapters address both theoretical and practical issues and make connections to extend the work done by teacher evaluation of student writing peer evaluation and in portfolios Writing Research/researching Writing Gary William

Rasberry,2001 This book will be of interest to those whose lives include writing particularly when that writing is attached to a life that also includes teaching and learning it seeks to engage with those who have a passion for words and for wordmaking for those who are curious about how these curricular acts become inextricably tangled in ways that are both maddening and hopeful Moving backward and forward between the lived particulars of a group of preservice teachers writing practices in a workshop styled setting and the writing practice of a researcher teacher educator poet curious about the acts of learning and teaching writing and researching this work attempts to live well with the necessarily tangled relationships among literacy aesthetic practice and the ongoing production of subjectivity in teacher education and our educational researchings of teacher education

The Author & Journalist ,1925      The Practical Guide to Writing : with Readings and Handbook Sylvan Barnet,2007 The second Canadian edition of The Practical Guide to Writing with Readings and Handbook is designed for use in university and college courses in which essay writing is required It enhances the learning process for both students and instructors by providing insight for students as they write for instructors as they read and for both as they discuss the writing together The student who is looking for information about choosing a topic writing an analysis constructing a paragraph or even using a semicolon will find this guide indispensable      Coming from Home Marjorie A. Ford,Jon Ford,Ann Watters,1993 Coming From Home is a reader arranged around the single theme of families and the importance of a community Containing 72 selections including essays poems stories and memories it aims to provide a variety of ethnic cultural economic sociological psychological and literary perspectives      Writing and Sense of Self Robert Brooke,1991 Drawing on findings from psychology anthropology and sociology this book examines motivation for writing and connects writing with the roles each person plays in the family the workplace and in social and cultural groups including school and with the lifelong search for potential new roles As a blueprint for changing the writing of college students the book offers portraits of four types of writing classes and discusses rationales teacher roles assignments day to day classroom practices student behaviors and outcomes The book presents the perceptions concerns and thought processes of writing teachers from a practitioner s point of view as well as findings from student interviews conducted outside of class It is the thesis of the book that the new roles for students that emerge from a writer centered workshop can change the way students learn from passive absorption toward an ability to use experience to change their own lives and those of their communities KEH
