

The Veterans Mentor's Guide to BASEBALL COACHING

A the words of former players about their coaches, former coaches, and the coaching process and program. I had thought it was the only book about coaching. The Veterans Mentor Guide to Baseball Coaching.

From hitting and throwing to base running and defensive strategy, this book provides valuable coaching techniques and insights that have not been fully explored in other books.

History, application, approach to baseball coaching is well covered, available to the coach as well as those with minimal experience.

Just as inspiring are the anecdotes shared by former players about a beloved coach whose guidance, both on and off the field, inspired them to greatness and success.

"This player's development was in my life and I remember each of what I learned from him in my own time when I was a professional baseball player in the Florida Marlins organization."

- John Genth, Staker High School, Class of 1964

"I remember our story in particular. A father simply couldn't help coaching his kid from the stands. That inspired the team, motivated the kid up into the stands and set him free to his father and out to the team. Now we have to decide right now are you coaching your kid or are you? Because if you are, here is where he will sit for the remainder of the season."

- Scott Butler, Staker High School, Class of 1972

"I certainly had great players. But he always seemed to get the most out of the average kid... the kid who didn't end up with a professional or in a Division I program."

- Bill Neufly, former coach
