Victorian Justice:

History of the Criminal Justice System in Victoria Colin Rimington, 2023-02-01 This is an authoritative comprehensive account of Victoria's justice system starting with a tour of the historic justice precinct which is located on the corner of La Trobe Street and Russell Street Melbourne The author takes us back to the earliest days of Victoria's settlement and introduces the politicians police magistrates and even the criminals who played their parts in Melbourne and Victoria's development We are shown how the prison hulks developed into stockades on land and uncover the philosophy behind the construction of the prisons many no longer occupied and the building of courts which were built for conducting trials both civil and criminal The book is in many ways an insight into an aspect of Victoria's social history about which little has been written elsewhere It is a valuable addition to the justice bibliography and even exposes a mystery or two It took seven years to research and fact check and includes many photos All of the author's proceeds of this book after costs will be donated to Victoria Police Legacy which looks after families of deceased police officers who have died in the course of their duties

The Victorian Reports, 1877 Civilising Criminal Justice David J. Cornwell, John R. Blad, Martin Wright, 2013 Probably the best collection there is Civilizing Criminal Justice is an inescapable resource for anyone interested in restorative justice truly international and packed with experience while combining history theory developments and practical advice This volume of specially commissioned contributions by widely respected commentators on crime and punishment from various countries is a breakthrough in bringing together some of the best arguments for long overdue penal reform An increasingly urgent need to change outmoded criminal processes even in advanced democracies demands an end to those penal excesses driven by political expediency and damaging notions of retribution deterrence and punishment for its own sake Civilising criminal justice will make it fairer more consistent understandable and considerate towards victims of crime currently largely excluded from participation Principles of reparative and restorative justice have become increasingly influential in the quest to provide justice which tackles harm compensates victims repairs relationships resolves debilitating conflicts and calls offenders to account And in any case what real justification is there for subjecting more and more people to the expensive but hollow experience of prison especially at a time of economic stringency Civil justice in its various forms can be swifter cheaper and more effective in court or through mediated processes focusing on the harmful consequences of offences rather than inflicting punishment that may satisfy a baying media but come home to haunt the community This brave and generous book 600 pages illustrates the many different ways in which criminal justice can be civilised and how lessons can be learned from practical experience across the world and shared expertise It is a volume that every politician should read every criminal justice professional should possess and that every student of criminology and penology will find invaluable David Cornwell John Blad and Martin Wright are three of the leading international experts on this topic with many publications to their names individually Contributors Serge Gutwirth and Paul De Hert Belgium Federico Reggio Italy Bas van Stokkom The

This impact is often assumed And especially in the wake of high profile crimes the press is routinely observed calling for sentences to be harsher and for governments to be tougher on crime But how do we know that there is a connection To answer this question the book draws on a case study of the media reporting of the rape and murder of Jill Meagher in Melbourne Australia as well as other well known cases including those of James Bulger Sarah Payne Stephen Lawrence and Michael Brown among others Deploying a socio legal framework to examine how the media s often powerful and emotive narratives play a crucial role in the development and implementation of law the book provides a deep and critical reflection on its influence The book concludes with a number of suggestions for media reform both to moderate the media s influence and to incorporate a broader range of viewpoints This multi disciplinary book will appeal to scholars and students in sociolegal studies criminology and criminal law as well as those working in relevant areas in sociology and media studies

Victorian Year Book ,2001 The Victorian Reports Victoria. Supreme Court,1872 Plea Negotiations Asher Flynn,Arie Freiberg,2018-07-24 Despite a popular view that trials are the focal point of the criminal justice process in reality the most frequent way a criminal matter resolves is not through a fiercely fought battle between state and defendant but instead through a process of negotiation between the prosecution and defence resulting in a defendant pleading guilty in exchange for agreed concessions from the prosecution This book presents an original empirical case study of plea negotiations drawing upon interviews with legal actors and an analysis of defence practitioner case files to shine light on the processes and ways in which an agreed outcome is reached in criminal prosecutions within the setting of a jurisdiction like many others world wide which is suffering major shifts in state resources Plea negotiations also referred to as plea bargaining negotiated guilty pleas and negotiated resolutions are neither an alloyed benefit nor a detriment for defendants victims or the criminal justice system generally and like all compromises this book shows how the perfect justice outcome gives way to the good or just the reasonably acceptable justice outcome Confronting the Human Rights Act 1998 Nicolas Kang-Riou,2012-03-15 This book critically examines the Human Rights Act 1998 HRA and evaluates its impact from a multi disciplinary perspective The book includes both a domestic and international analysis of the effectiveness of the HRA and also considers possible future developments in policy and practise as well as contemplating the potential for a British Bill of Rights The editors have collected pieces from contributors drawn from diverse spheres all of whom are internationally recognised for their impact in the field of human rights law Contributors include members of the bench in the United Kingdom and Australia academics researchers members of NGOs and campaigners as well as people s testimony of lived experiences in relation to the Human Rights Act Valuable contributions from the likes of Costas Douzinas Keith Ewing Helen Fenwick Lady Hale Irene Khan Michael Kirby Francesca Klug Peter Tatchell and others have resulted in a book which draws out the connections between legal framework theory and the actual experience of the protection afforded to groups and individuals by the HRA Confronting the Human Rights Act 1998 will be of particular interest to scholars and students of Law International Studies and Political Science Queensland Justice of the Peace and Local Authorities' Journal ,1907 The New Zealand Justice of the Peace George Burnett Barton,1876 Queensland Justice of the Peace and Local Authorities' Journal ,1907 Includes Queensland justice of the peace and local authorities journal Reports v 1 The Victorian Historical Magazine ,1919 Administrative Justice in Wales and Comparative Perspectives Sarah Nason,2017-09-15 This book offers a unique understanding of what administrative justice means in Wales and for Wales whilst also providing an expert and timely analysis of comparative developments in law and administration It includes critical analysis of distinctly Welsh administrative laws and redress measures whilst examining contemporary administrative justice issues across a range of common and civil law European and international jurisdictions Key issues include the roles of commissioners administrative courts tribunals and ombudsmen in devolved and federal nations and evolving relationships between citizens and the state especially in the context of localisation and austerity and will be of interest to legal and public administration professionals at home and internationally Acts of the Victorian Parliament Victoria,1917 Justice of the Peace ,1897 Victorian Reports Victoria.
