West European Party System:

The West European Party System Peter Mair, 1990 The analysis of party systems in Western Europe has long constituted a major focus of concern in comparative political science Now for the first time many of the classic writings in this field have been collected into a single volume The collection contains seminal writings by Weber Neumann Duverger Kirchheimer Daalder Rokkan and Sartori as well as a selection from the more recent debates on changes in European party systems including the contributions of Pedersen Wolinetz and Inglehart The writings cover the development stabilization and transformation of party systems and include some of the key analyses which have sought to distinguish between different types of party systems

Understanding Party System Change in Western Europe Peter Mair, Gordon B. Smith, Gordon Smith, 1990 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The Deinstitutionalization of Western European Party Systems Alessandro Chiaramonte, Vincenzo Emanuele, 2022-04-18 This book offers a systematic and far reaching account of party system institutionalization in Western Europe Drawing upon a wide array of data and through a comparison of 20 countries from the end of WWII to 2019 across three arenas of party competition electoral parliamentary and governmental ones the empirical analysis shows that over the past decade the level of institutionalization in the Western European party systems has dramatically declined compared with previous decades Electoral parliamentary and in some cases governmental instability and unpredictability have reached record high levels Although the impact of the 2008 Great Recession has certainly worked as a catalyst this process of de institutionalization has been mainly driven by long term factors such as cleavage decline and length of democratic experience Moreover its consequences are relevant not only for the relationship between parties and voters but also for the very quality of democracy as party system deinstitutionalization causes a decline in the citizens satisfaction of the way democracy works and even an erosion of the objective democratic standards In a nutshell Western Europe once seen as the land of stability and the cradle of democracy may have become the land of party system deinstitutionalization and incipient democratic backsliding

The Reshaping of West European Party Politics Christoffer Green-Pedersen, 2019-07-31 Long gone are the times when class based political parties with extensive membership dominated politics Instead party politics has become issue based Surprisingly few studies have focused on how the issue content of West European party politics has developed over the past decades Empirically Reshaping of West European Party Politics studies party politics in Belgium Denmark France Germany the Netherlands Sweden and the UK from 1980 and onwards This book highlights the more complex party system agenda with the decline but not disappearance of macroeconomic issues as well as the rise in new politics issues together with education and health care Moreover various new politics issues such as immigration the environment and European integration have seen very different trajectories To explain the development of the individual issues this volume develops a new theoretical model labelled the issue incentive model of party system attention The aim of the model is to explain how much attention issues get throughout the party system which is labelled the party system agenda To explain the development of the party system agenda one needs to focus on the incentives that individual policy issues offer to large mainstream parties i e the typical Social Democratic Christian Democratic or Conservative Liberal parties that have dominated West European governments for decades The core idea of the model is that the incentives that individual policy issues offer to these vote and office seeking parties depend on three factors namely issue characteristics issue ownership and coalition considerations The issue incentive model builds on and develops a top down perspective on which the issue content of party politics is determined by the strategic considerations of political parties and their competition with each other Comparative Politics is a series for researchers teachers and students of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterised by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecprnet.eu The series is edited by Emilie van Haute Professor of Political Science Universit libre de Bruxelles Ferdinand M ller Rommel Director of the Center for the Study of Democracy Leuphana University and Susan Scarrow John and Rebecca Moores Professor of Political Science University of Houston Changing Party Systems in Western Europe David Broughton, Mark Donovan, 1999-01-04 This is an analysis of the changing pressures and demands placed on party systems in 11 countries in Western Europe since 1945 This book includes studies of the party system in Britain France Italy and Germany as well as studies of Spain Portugal Ireland Sweden Austria Belgium and the Netherlands Five major themes are examined in each chapter First the broad development of the party system is accompanied by a discussion of how different party system typologies have been applied to each country Secondly a detailed discussion of the historical background to party system developments is provided dealing with the main divisions derived from the typology of Lipset and Rokkan Thirdly the most important contextual variables are considered in terms of the electoral environment within which the party system operates Next consideration is given to the degree of unfreezing of the party system since 1945 and the changing balance between stability and change Finally major questions of change and adaptation are examined updating the text

The Structure of Political Competition in Western Europe Zsolt Enyedi, Kevin Deegan-Krause, 2013-09-13 Is European party politics hovering above society Why do voters pick one party over others Is it a question of class Of religion Of attitudes about taxes or immigration or global warming Or is it something else entirely The Structure of Political Competition in Western Europe takes a detailed look at the ways in which Western Europe's party systems are anchored in social and ideological structures The book's first section focuses on the role of social structures particularly education class and religion and analyzes the complex interplay among these factors The second section addresses the ways that the sociological structures such as class and religion interact with voters values The third section examines the way that these structures and values shape the space of political competition among parties The conclusion integrates the findings of the empirical articles putting them into broader comparative perspective discussing whether relatively predictable structures have been overwhelmed by media driven spectacles political personalities and focus on short term economic performance This volume will appeal to scholars and graduate students in Europe and those from North America Asia and other regions who study European politics political parties cleavages and political behaviour This book was published as a special issue of West European Politics
