Carver McGriff,1998 Preachers must understand the teaching techniques of parable and hyperbole not to mention having a good background in systematic theology in order to understand what the Bible's writers really meant. But our responsibility is also to reduce the complexities of Bible study to such simplicities that our many listeners ranging from busy young professional people to aging men and women of failing health to youngsters facing a variety of new temptations can take away a saving word from the Preface. E. Carver McGriff provides the tools preachers need for their daunting task with some of the most timely and thought provoking research on the lectionary texts ever made available. Included for each scriptural lesson in the lectionary are: A listing of the applicable Revised Common Roman Catholic and Episcopal lectionary texts; A description of the Psalm of the day; A prayer for the day; Commentary that is more than academic exegesis. McGriff brings to the forefront those points in the lessons that relate most poignantly to our contemporary reality. Suggested sermon titles for each of the three texts for each Sunday; Themes and suggested directions for preaching on each text. Several additional illustrations to enliven your preaching.

Known in the Indianapolis community as a preacher with extraordinary gifts, it is no surprise at all that this work by Carver McGriff brings remarkable insights to those who look for integrity in their preaching. Carver looks at the texts with a freshness that is sure to stimulate the thought process. Careful use of these suggestions will bring serendipities to preacher and congregation.

George H. Tooze, Senior Minister, First Baptist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. One of America's premiere preachers, E. Carver McGriff returned home after earning two Purple Hearts during World War II to earn a degree in business administration from Butler University. Following a career as a salesman and business owner, McGriff entered Garrett Theological Seminary where he was voted Best Preacher by the faculty and graduated with distinction. During his 26-year ministry at St. Luke's Methodist Church in Indianapolis, McGriff spearheaded his congregation's remarkable growth in membership from 900 to 4,400 with average Sunday attendance increasing from 300 to over 1,850. McGriff received an honorary degree from the University of Indianapolis and the Outstanding Alumnus award from Butler University and was voted the Distinguished Alumnus of the year by Christian Theological Seminary. McGriff was also honored in 1993 by the Governor of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash. His sermons have been distributed nationwide by the United Methodist Publishing House.

Up and Down the River Rebecca Caudill, 2005. And so the ambitious summer project began. Not that it ended in quite the way the girls were imagining. In fact, it sparked a flurry of trading in which the girls somehow accumulated wealth in the form of unexpected friends, assorted animals, and other experiences up and down the river, even as their collection of dimes and dollars seemed always to be slipping through their hands. In this third book of the Fairchild Family series, Bonnie and Debby Fairchild, occupying center stage in the family story, carry us through a summer season in the lovely hills of Kentucky of the early 1900s.
