Reading Paul in Context: Explorations in Identity Formation Kathy Ehrensperger,J. Brian Tucker,2010-09-30 This new collection celebrates the distinguished contribution of William S Campbell to a renewed understanding of Paul s theologizing and its influence on the shaping of early Christian identity The essays are clustered around two closely related topics Paul's theologizing and the way it influenced Christian identity within the context of Roman Empire. The essays consider the continued relevance of previous identities in Christ, the importance of the context of the Roman Empire and the significance of the Jewishness of Paul and the Pauline movement in the shaping of identity. The political context is discussed by Neil Elliott Ekkehard Stegemann, Daniel Patte and Ian Rock, whilst the Jewish roots of Paul and the Christ movement are addressed in essays by Robert Jewett, Mark Nanos, Calvin Roetzel and Kathy Ehrensperger. Paul's specific influence in shaping the identity of the early Christ movement is the concern of essays by Robert Brawley, Jerry Sumney, Kar Yong Lim and J Brian Tucker. Finally, methodological reflection on Paul's theologizing within Pauline studies is the concern of essays by Terrence Donaldson and Magnus Zetterholm.

Christian Antisemitism Michael L. Brown, 2021. It's tragic yet not shocking to hear the Jewish people and Israel described as a dominant and moving force behind the present and coming evils of our day and a monstrous system of evil that will destroy us and our children. What's surprising is that these and similar comments are being made by Christians, people who claim to demonstrate the love of God. Messianic Bible scholar Michael L. Brown, PhD, exposes the lies that support modern Christian antisemitism and addresses relevant questions such as: What is antisemitism exactly? Is it a sin to be a Zionist? Why is replacement theology so popular? Do the Jews want to take over the world? Open your eyes to the hate that has seeped into the church and fight the trend with the powerful love of the cross. Female Genital Mutilation Haseena Lockhat, 2004. Female Genital Mutilation describes how the UK has no effective procedure either to identify girls at risk or those who have been taken away to be circumcised. In addition, there is no blanket training information or guidance to health professionals and few support mechanisms for girls who have suffered from their experience. Dr Lockhat argues that there is a great opportunity for their work to be coordinated for good practice to be shared and a real difference to be made. From extensive interviews with circumcised women, she details their experiences and recommends ways forward for all those who may be involved in their care. BOOK JACKET
