The City Ablaze:

The City James A. Clapp, 2012-11-01 Originally published in 1984 by the Center for Urban Policy Research The World's Work, 1920 A history of our time

Chronicles of a Gorean Bard Agarva, 2020-10-01 Chronicles of a Gorean Bard By Agarva Witness the horror and destruction when the city is attacked Be there as the lone warrior begins his quest to the hidden abode of the mysterious beings who wield the Blue Flame of Death protecting the planet Become enthralled in the tale of a young American girl abducted and sold in the medieval world as a slave Her confusion and ultimate understanding will keep the fascination alive as she learns to live on the mysterious and exotic planet of Gor a beautiful wondrous and exciting place where many adventures and dangers await the unsuspecting traveler A savage world that men share with the creatures of the planet Sit back and relax as the Bard spins his tales of being transported there

The Forging of the Shadows Oliver Johnson, 2015-07-30 It is a time of great darkness when the sun is in danger of being forever extinguished and mankind has been divided into two warring factions the worshipers of the God of Light and the servants of Eternal Night Now three unsuspecting travelers are called by prophecy to face a legion of the undead and the powers of the Dark Lord in the faint hope of reclaiming the world for the light

Wolfram's "Willehalm" Martin H. Jones, Timothy McFarland, 2002 Wolfram von Eschenbach's Willehalm c 1210-20 is one of the great epic creations of the Middle Ages Its account of conflict between Christian and Muslim cultures centering on the warrior saint Willehalm and his wife Gyburc a convert from Islam challenges the ideology of the Crusades It celebrates the heroism faith and family solidarity of the Christians but also displays the suffering of both sides in the war and questions the justification of all killing Gyburc whose abandonment of her Muslim family and conversion to Christianity are the immediate cause of the war bears a double burden of sorrow and it is from her that springs a vision of humanity transcending religious differences that is truly remarkable for its time In Gyburc's heathen brother Rennewart and his love for the French king's daughter Wolfram also develops a richly comic strand in the narrative with the outcome left tantalizingly open by the work's probably unfinished conclusion Long overshadowed by his earlier Parzival Wolfram's Willehalm is increasingly receiving the recognition it deserves The fifteen essays in this volume present new interpretations of a wide range of aspects of Willehalm They place the work in its historical and literary context promote understanding of its leading figures and themes and highlight Wolfram's supreme qualities as a story teller Martin H Jones is Senior Lecturer in German at King's College London Timothy McFarland is retired as Senior Lecturer in German at University College London

The North Star Julian Sher, 2024-05-21 FINALIST FOR THE MAVIS GALLANT PRIZE FOR NON FICTION LONGLISTED FOR THE J W DAFOE BOOK PRIZE A riveting account of the years months and days leading up to the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln and the unexpected ways Canadians were involved in every aspect of the American Civil War Canadians have long taken pride in being on the good side of the American Civil War serving as a haven for 30 000 escaped slaves on the Underground Railroad But dwelling in history's shadow is the much darker role Canada

played in supporting the slave South and in fomenting the many plots against Lincoln The North Star weaves together the different strands of several Canadians and a handful of Confederate agents in Canada as they all made their separate fateful journeys into history The book shines a spotlight on the stories of such intrepid figures as Anderson Abbott Canada's first Black doctor who joined the Union Army Emma Edmonds the New Brunswick woman who disguised herself as a man to enlist as a Union nurse and Edward P Doherty the Quebec man who led the hunt to track down Lincoln's assassin John Wilkes Booth At the same time the Canadian political and business elite were aiding the slave states Toronto aristocrat George Taylor Denison III bankrolled Confederate operations and opened his mansion to their agents The Catholic Church helped one of Booth's accused accomplices hide out for months in the Quebec countryside A leading financier in Montreal let Confederates launder money through his bank Sher creates vivid portraits of places we thought we knew Montreal was a sort of nineteenth century Casablanca of the North a hub for assassins money men mercenaries and soldiers on the run Toronto was a headquarters for Confederate plotters and gun runners The two largest hotels in the country became nests of Confederate spies Meticulously researched and richly illustrated The North Star is a sweeping tale that makes long ago events leap off the page with a relevance to the present day
