Collected Poems James Wright,2012-01-01 Like an underground river the astonishing poems of Joseph Ceravolo have nurtured American poetry for fifty years a presence deeply felt but largely invisible Collected Poems offers the first full portrait of Ceravolo's aesthetic trajectory bringing to light the highly original voice that was operating at an increasing remove from the currents of the time From a poetics associated with Frank O'Hara and John Ashbery to an ever more contemplative deeply visionary poetics similar in sensibility to Zen and Dante William Blake and St John of the Cross this collection shows how Ceravolo's poetry takes on a direct quiet lyricism intensely dedicated to the natural and spiritual life of the individual As Ron Silliman notes Ceravolo's later work reveals him to be one of the most emotionally open vulnerable and self knowing poets of his generation Many new pieces including the masterful long poem The Hellgate are published here for the first time This volume is a landmark edition for American poetry and includes an introduction by David Lehman

All of Us Raymond Carver, 1996 Carver's poetry is like an almost invisible strand of fishing line reeling us all together connecting us by the heart San Francisco Examiner and Chronicle This prodigiously rich collection suggests that Raymond Carver was not only America's finest writer of short fiction but also one of its most large hearted and affecting poets Like Carver's stories the more than 300 poems in All of Us are marked by a keen attention to the physical world an uncanny ability to compress vast feeling into discreet moments a voice of conversational intimacy and an unstinting sympathy This complete edition brings together all the poems of Carver's five previous books from Fires to the posthumously published No Heroics Please It also contains bibliographical and textual notes on individual poems a chronology of Carver's life and work and a moving introduction by Carver's widow the poet Tess Gallagher

The Collected Poetry of Malcolm Lowry Malcolm Lowry, Chris Ackerley, 1992

Although his literary reputation rests primarily on his novels Malcolm Lowry 1909-57 considered himself to be a poet and he composed an extensive poetic canon No reliable edition of Lowry's poetry currently exists Increasing critical interest in all aspects of Lowry's life and work prompted the preparation of this complete edition of his poetry in which the poems are located identified dated arranged collated annotated and explicated by biographical critical and textual introductions The sections of Lowry's text are chronologically arranged to reflect his artistic development and are preceded by short essays describing the specific issues raised by those poems The opening section Lowry's poetic juvenilia reflects his fascination with the sea as does the ensuing section The Lighthouse Invites the Storm his first collection of poetry a sequence of related semi autobiographical poems which depicts the adventures of the characters Peter Gaunt and Vigil Forget Lowry composed most of The Lighthouse in Mexico following it in this edition is a small group of uncollected Mexican poems The next two sections of text Dollarton 1940 54 Selected Poems 1947 and Dollarton 1940 54 Uncollected Poems reflect and record the experience of Lowry's sojourn on the lower mainland and its deep effect on him All the poems are fully annotated The appendices contain sections of song lyrics and undated fragments as well as a remarkably coherent group of love poems written between 1949 and Lowry's death in 1957 This edition provides Lowryans with ready access to the latest determinable authorial versions of and the textual histories for the canon's 490 poems which range in date from 1925 to 1957 By using this edition readers will be able to reconstruct every version of every Lowry poem

The Collected Poetry of Robinson

Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti modernist Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision how to connect present day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems the current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers lifetime or from his posthumous volume Now for the first time all of Jeffers completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best known poems Tamar Roan Stallion The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction
