The Coming New Man:

The Coming of the Son of Man Jeffrey Horton, 2017-11-06 Behold I stand at the door and knock If anyone hears My voice and opens the door I will come in to him and dine with him and he with Me Rev 3 20 Wouldn't it be great if you could open the door invite Jesus into your home and ask Him when He's coming back All the confusion about the events surrounding Christ's return would vanish as He explains the Scriptures to you You would have your own Emmaus Road journey Like the apostles and first century disciples you could say that He opened the eyes of your understanding That's exactly what this series does by unfolding in an easy to follow manner what God's Word shows us and what Jesus taught Each of the three books focuses on three critical end time revelations that open the door of our understanding surrounding the events of Christ's return The New Testament apostles received these keys from Jesus Himself Over the centuries these revelations were lost or watered down leaving us clustered and even fearful That's not God's will It's time to let the Word speak for itself with a message of comfort hope and victory The Coming of the Son of Man brings you to your final destination literally It shows you what Jesus taught His disciples about the end of this age the rapture and the sign when all these things will be fulfilled The journey will expose the misidentification of key terms that distorted the Church's understanding of Christ's return Along the way Jesus's teaching known as the Olivet Discourse as well as the book of Revelation will become clear No more confusion No more questioning how to prepare Simply the truth of God's plans and purposes The Coming of the Son of Man Andrew Perriman, 2012-08-21 Tracing the powerful motif of the coming of the Son of man from Daniel through to Revelation Andrew Perriman provides thought provoking ideas about eschatological narrative What was it like to hear the biblical proclamation of this coming for the first time in a cultural political and religious context very different from our own How did early Christians think about the imminence of the promised day of the Lord What difference did this message make to how they thought lived and spread the gospel message This book engages the minds of jaded twenty first century postmoderns who have heard it all before By seeing the fulfilment of much of New Testament apocalyptic in events of the first centuries Perriman proposes that in some important sense we have moved beyond eschatology into an age of renewed community and mission that is creational in its scope The Coming of the Son of Man is important reading for those who want to engage in the debate concerning what church is and will be Who is 'the coming man?' or, The mystery of godliness unveiled, a serio-satirical drama Robert Withers, 1848 John Henry Newman Sermons 1824-1843 John Henry Newman, 2012-09-20 Volume V completes this series of John Henry Newman's previously unpublished Anglican sermons written between 1824-1843 It contains 51 sermons and 62 sermon abstracts all but 2 of which belong to the 20 months when he was Curate of St Clement's Oxford from June 1824 until April 1826 Newman on the Bible John Henry Newman, 2006 This book presents selections from the commentaries on the Bible by Cardinal John Henry Newman Although Newman never wrote an entire book about the Bible his articles and sermons which alone fill 12 volumes abound with extensive comments on passages and issues as well as on problems of interpretation His studies of characters such as Joshua Saul and David provide great psychological insight And his meditations on beloved or difficult New Testament passages bring both depth and light to their meaning

John Henry Newman and the English Sensibility Jacob Phillips, 2023-04-06

Asides about John Henry Newman being either particularly English or particularly un-English are common John Henry Newman and the English Sensibility scrutinises Newman's theological writings to establish how his theology can be considered distinctively English or un-English at the different stages of its development In his Tractarian period Newman's theology is shown to be profoundly characterised by common 19th century tropes of a perceived English sensibility namely an instinct for compromise an affection for reserve and a markedly empirical orientation to life In the period following Newman's conversion to Catholicism in 1845 however his theology turns against the Englishness of his earlier years as he critiques the many theological dangers of a self-confident cultural sensibility In his mature writings nonetheless Newman re-incorporates certain elements of his earlier Englishness with a Catholic grounding yet also maintains an antipathy to certain targets of his post-conversion polemics Phillips finds that the English instinct for compromise is not incorporated into Newman's mature theology which remains unabashedly one-sided in its understanding of God and the Catholic Church taking precedence over elements of a cultural sensibility pertaining ultimately to the sphere of the natural The affection for reserve however is shown to be capable of gracious elevation when reconfigured on a Catholic grounding Most importantly the profoundly empirical orientation to life which was considered typical of Englishness in Newman's day emerges as something exhibiting what Newman might consider an antecedent affinity to Catholic theology This book thus concludes by offering a view of the English Catholic sensibility as characterised by a mindset of careful reserve toward knowledge and words about God arising from a marked concern for the living embodied present as the site of God's transformative action in the twists and turns of human life
