Turn Your School Round:

Turn Your School Round Jenny Mosley,1993 A guide to initiating a whole school policy based on self esteem and positive behaviour It s aims include a committed staff who feel part of a valued and effective team an end to bullying and aggressive behaviour and pupils with good self esteem who rise to the challenge of learning experiences Make Your School Irresistible Carrie Bishop,Jessica Holloway,2025-01-31 Attract and retain talented faculty by inviting them into your school community investing in their careers and inspiring them to advance in their profession Teacher numbers are dwindling in schools and districts across the United States as many leave the profession and the popularity of teacher education programs wanes As a result the most qualified candidates can choose from an array of professional options How do you make sure they will want to commit to your school In Make Your School Irresistible authors Carrie Bishop and Jessica Holloway explore ways to reframe personnel practices and center teachers to boost the appeal of joining your school community Drawing on their coaching and teacher leadership experience the authors introduce three vital components for recruitment and retention invite invest and inspire Practical strategies relatable scenarios and real life examples demonstrate what to do and not do to attract top candidates and support existing staff in ways that allow them to grow and thrive in their careers School leaders will learn how to Communicate a compelling school identity and brand through social media and other vehicles Establish effective processes for all stages of engagement with candidates from recruitment and interviewing through onboarding and mentoring Develop mindsets and behaviors that convey respect for all staff and nurture their personal and professional growth Build leadership capacity within and outside the classroom for the benefit of both individuals and the larger school community Armed with this guidance you will be better prepared to find attract and retain the great teachers who will contribute to a promising future for your school your students and your community Turning Your School Around Robert Barr,Debra Yates,2011-11-01 Learn a step by step protocol for the self guided audit that focuses on the most crucial areas of school improvement identified in The Kids Left Behind the nationally recognized work by Robert D Barr and William H Parrett The authors give readers a realistic view of the work involved in a top to bottom audit while providing supporting evidence of its effectiveness Understanding Pupil Behaviour in School Janice Wearmouth,Ted Glynn,Robin C. Richmond,Mere Berryman,2013-04-03 The expert contributors to this book make sense of the different approaches to understanding pupil behavior in schools providing a comprehensive overview thorough discussion of key topics The book covers Cultural issues such as ethnic diversity and the underachievement of boys Psychological perspectives including a range of behavioral models Medical conditions including AD HD and autism Sociological issues specifically the challenges of including pupils whose behavior is hard to manage The school managers' series of reading books. Standard 1-6. Intr. primer [and] Standard 1-6 Alexander Ronald Grant,1874 Emotional Health and Well-Being Helen Cowie,Chrissy Boardman,Judith Dawkins,Dawn Jennifer,2004-04-18 This publication is a valuable and timely contribution to the current investigations into the behaviours of children and young people that impact on their emotional health The book will serve as a practical guide for schools addressing the problem as they see it the case studies vividly illustrating situations and behaviours that teachers will readily recognise This is a well structured book It deserves to be read and can serve as a source of information on how various behaviours have been defined investigated and addressed It will be of value to any school much more than a topical or interesting read but as the basis of an institutional response to a problem seriously affecting educational achievement for individuals and schools It would particularly serve as a stimulus to in service training for teachers and support staff George Varnava Young Minds Magazine Each of the authors has considerable relevant expertise so the text is rich both in research data and examples including case studies from their experience Readers will find a wealth of practical advice and encouragement that is balanced by the acknowledgement of the limitations of individual interventions and the potential costs overt and hidden of each one A whole school approach is advocated and exemplified including schools that have considered the needs of the staff Child and Adolescent Mental Health This work would be of use throughout all age ranges as the different problems and strategies are very easily accessible with a lot of proven practical support Professor Cowie and her colleagues have produced a valuable tool for use in all schools on both micro and macro level Education Review The book is an impressive and useful handbook of advice and resources More than that because it presents so much evidence it is able to show rather than tell how schools can improve life for their pupils and teachers Gerald Haigh TES Friday Magazine This book is recommended for the wealth of practical information it contains about strategies that can help young people in distress Youth Studies Australia Secondary school is the place where young people are most constrained observed and challenged to develop This is not necessarily a stress free process either for the young person or for teachers and parents This book describes behaviours both disruptive and secretive which indicates emotional distress It looks at both the risk factors and the protective factors involved in emotional health and addresses the impact of issues such as bullying social exclusion loss and bereavement The authors show what schools can do to develop practices grounded in knowledge about the mental health issues which relate to young people In an accessible way they present a range of strategies which practitioners have shown to be effective They focus especially on methods and policies which have been scientifically evaluated or which are considered best practice Issues and interventions are illustrated throughout with case studies drawn from the authors own practice and experience Each of the authors has a long standing interest in ways of creating supportive environments to prevent distress and to facilitate resilience in the young This book is essential reading for secondary school teachers educational psychologists education welfare officers and all those with pastoral care responsibilities
