Turtles Song:

The Old Songs are Always New Genevieve Campbell, 2023-07-01 It's really great. It's like they're all here. I hear all of these voices and I sing with them. You know Yikliya Eustace Tipiloura, senior songman and Elder. Perhaps the most defining feature of Tiwi song is the importance placed on the creative innovation of the individual singer/composer. Tiwi songs are fundamentally new, unique, and occasion-specific, and yet sit within a continuum of an oral artistic tradition. Performed in ceremony at public events for art and for fun, songs form the core of the Tiwi knowledge system and historical archive. Held by song custodians and taught through sung and danced ritual, generations of embodied practice are still being created and accumulated as people continue to sing. In 2009, Genevieve Campbell and eleven Tiwi colleagues travelled to Canberra to reclaim over 1300 recordings of Tiwi songs made between 1912 and 1981 that are held in the archives at the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS). The Old Songs are Always New explores the return home of these recordings to the Tiwi Islands and describes the musical and vocal characteristics, performance context, and cultural function of the twelve Tiwi song types, giving an overview of the linguistic and poetic devices used by Tiwi composers. For the past 16 years, Campbell has been working closely with Tiwi song custodians, studying contemporary Tiwi song culture in the context of the maintenance of traditions and the development of new music forms. Their musical collaboration has resulted in public performances, community projects, and recordings featuring current senior singers and the voices of the repatriated recordings. For this publication, Elders have enabled the transcription of many song texts and melodies for the first time, shedding light on how generations of Tiwi singers have connected the past with the present in a continuum of knowledge transmission and arts practice.

Turtle's Song Alan Brown, Kim Michelle Toft, 2001. I am Turtle. My eyes are black, my shell is green. Wide ocean calls me as I lie curled in the dark. Tides roar in my blood, surf pounds in my heart. A lyrical journey of the life of a Green Turtle from hatchling beneath the sand of a coral beach through wanderings at sea to adulthood and returning to lay eggs of its own. Award-winning illustrator Kim Toft's magnificent silk painting perfectly captures the precarious life of the Green Turtle, while author Alan Brown's poignant mythical story sounds a hymn to this ancient but now endangered creature.

The Gentle Night FF Sidiq. The Gentle Night by FF Sidiq is a beautifully written collection of calming bedtime tales designed to comfort children as they drift to sleep. Each story explores gentle themes of courage, imagination, and emotional reassurance through nature-inspired adventures. Across ten chapters, young readers meet kind characters like Lily, Oliver, Ruby, and wise creatures such as owls, foxes, turtles, and fireflies who guide them through enchanting worlds: the whispering garden, the cloud castle, the peaceful sea, and the dreamy mountains. The book gently teaches children how to face fears, embrace the night, and find peace in friendship, kindness, and imagination. Through poetic storytelling and soothing imagery, it transforms bedtime into a serene journey of self-discovery, love, and hope. Each tale ends with reassurance that the night is a friend, dreams are safe, and every new day brings fresh possibilities.
