Translation and Global Asia Uganda Sze-pui Kwan, Lawrence Wang-chi Wong, 2014-12-15 The present volume originates from The Fourth Asian Translation Traditions Conference held in Hong Kong in December 2010 The conference generated stimulating discussions relating to the richness and diversity of nonWestern discourses and practices of translation focusing on translational exchanges between nonWestern languages and the change and continuity in Asian translation traditions Translation and Global Asia shows a rich diversification of historical and geographical interests and covers a broad array of topics ranging from ninthcentury Buddhist translation in Tibet to twentyfirstcentury political translation in Malaysia This collection is strikingly rich Its authors deal with a wide range of topics in geographically diverse locations from India Thailand Japan Korea and the Philippines to different parts of China They evoke different linguistic and historical contexts from ancient times right up to the contemporary period and take a variety of approaches strongly supported by current theories in translation and cultural studies Presenting vital case studies this essential volume illustrates the importance of examining translation from a historical perspective of taking account of power relations and of studying the unique role of translators in initiating change and transmitting new ideas

Women in the Shadows Jennifer Goodlander, 2016-10-31 Wayang kulit or shadow puppetry connects a mythic past to the present through public ritual performance and is one of most important performance traditions in Bali The dalang or puppeteer is revered in Balinese society as a teacher and spiritual leader Recently women have begun to study and perform in this traditionally male role an innovation that has triggered resistance and controversy In Women in the Shadows Jennifer Goodlander draws on her own experience training as a dalang as well as interviews with early women dalang and leading artists to upend the usual assessments of such gender role shifts She argues that rather than assuming that women performers are necessarily mounting a challenge to tradition tradition in Bali must be understood as a system of power that is inextricably linked to gender hierarchy She examines the very idea of tradition and how it forms both an ideological and social foundation in Balinese culture Ultimately Goodlander offers a richer more complicated understanding of both tradition and gender in Balinese society Following in the footsteps of other eminent reflexive ethnographies Women in the Shadows will be of value to anyone interested in performance studies Southeast Asian culture or ethnographic methods
