Under One Roof: Uniting the Orthodox Church of America George E. Matsoukas, 2021-02-20 This is the second collection of essays compiled from opinion columns written during the period 2012-2020 when George Matsoukas served as executive director of Orthodox Christian Laity OCL. The first collection, A Church in Captivity: The Greek Orthodox Church of America, is also a collection of opinion columns, this one written during the period 1990-2007. This series of observational essays can be considered a first cut in putting together the history of Orthodoxy in America during this 30-year period. These essays also tell the OCL story and provide an insight into how the organization functions. The essays are written from the point of view of how societal events and concerned faithful were energized to advance the mission of Orthodox Christian Laity OCL, a pan-Orthodox educational and advocacy ministry formed in 1987 to advocate for the restoration and strengthening of the historic role of the laity in the conciliar governance of the Orthodox Church in the United States, support the spiritual renewal and regeneration of the Orthodox Christian Church in the United States in its Apostolic Mission, advocate for and promote transparency and accountability in the governance of the Orthodox Church in the United States, and champion the establishment of an administratively and canonically unified self-governing autocephalous Orthodox Christian Church in the United States. Matsoukas' musings in his first volume, A Church in Captivity, reflect the deep political changes transpiring after the fall of Communism in the captive Orthodox nations and then in what manner those national churches began to respond to their diasporas, those still existing, multiple jurisdictions in The United States. This weighing of the ongoing strain between those who continue to uphold that a unity through a simple Eucharistic oneness is sufficient and those who insist on a canonically unified Church administration is the stuff of volume two, Under One Roof: Uniting the Orthodox Church of America. It is the fruit of the author's essays of the past 13 years. Matsoukas' objective is to call us to be faithful to the Canonical Tradition of the Church so that it can bring forth the fullest witness of Orthodoxy through uniting all Orthodox in The United States. Considering the low percentage of Orthodox believers vis-à-vis others in this nation, the call to strength in unity makes practical sense as well. There is strength in numbers. Matsoukas reminds us that although we seem to be under one Eucharistic roof, he calls for a oneness which must not be as a loose federation of jurisdictions dependent on Synods abroad but an authentic unity in itself, total canonical autocephalous as other local churches each became. The reader is grateful for the wide coverage given us of thirteen years of new Orthodox witness in the six divisions: Orthodox Christian Laity, Story Promoting Unity, Holy and Great Council, Assembly of Bishops, Greek Orthodox Archdiocese, and Renewal of this new volume. The reader can take each article one by one and enjoy the author's convincing presentations and then sit back and enjoy arguing with him. Can an assembly of jurisdictions occasionally gathered at an altar, receiving from one cup and one diskos, be the fullness of Orthodox witness under one roof? The author's answer is an emphatic No.

Under One Roof Agnes Lee, 1940 Social Contexts of Radicalization and Violent Extremism in the MENA

and Balkans Corinne Torrekens, Tasnim Chirchi, Lurdes Vidal Bertran, 2025-04-29 This volume is a multilevel and multidisciplinary study of radicalization in the Balkans and MENA regions It takes a dynamic approach embracing the complexity of the social political and economic contexts under study Moving away from unidimensional and security centred research on the topic each chapter adopts a participatory and inclusive perspective engaging communities youth and women as significant stakeholders in building a better understanding of the dynamics of the radicalization of youth in these regions The multiple case studies presented here cover several macro drivers of radicalization to reveal the interactions and interrelations of individuals with meso institutions and backgrounds such as family neighbourhood school peer groups religious and ethnic communities political parties etc Consequently the volume addresses several gaps in the literature regarding radicalization and violent extremism it is based on firm empirical evidence it allows for comparisons between social contexts in one specific country and between countries sharing macro similarities but also differences it proposes a fruitful dialogue and collaborations between academics researchers and civil society experts and finally it offers decentralized perspectives on extremism in the West This volume is an important addition to a topic that is of interest to researchers across the social sciences and to think tanks and policy makers working on in these regions
