Vice Supreme A:

Magnyfycence John Skelton,2018-12-14 First published in 1906 this edition of Magnyfycence aimed to highlight the true significance of the play within both the canon of John Skelton s work and English drama Robert Lee Ramsay situates Magnyfycence as a morality play which functioned as a bridge between medieval miracle plays and the modern comedy He demonstrates the text s significance as the first example of a play by an English man of letters and our first example of a secular and literary rather than theological morality play This edition features an extensive scholarly introduction exploring areas such as the staging versification sources and characterisation followed by the Middle English text itself along with glosses
