aims to enhance our understanding of the relationship between culture and power as explored through areas such as race ethnicity class sexuality and gender It also aims to encourage within cultural studies a renewed historical sense when engaging critically with popular culture by exploring the historical conditions surrounding the existence of popular texts and practices Written in a highly accessible style The Making of English Popular Culture is an ideal text for undergraduates studying cultural and media studies literary studies cultural history and visual culture Victorian advertisements Leonard de Vries,1966 Advertising in Victorian England, 1837-1901 Diana Hindley,Geoffrey Hindley,1972 Making Pictorial Print Alison Hedley,2021-12-21 At the end of the nineteenth century print media dominated British popular culture produced in greater variety and on a larger scale than ever before Within decades new visual and auditory media had ushered in a mechanized milieu displacing print from its position at the heart of cultural life During this period of intense change illustrated magazines maintained a central position in the media landscape by transforming their letterpress orientation into a visual and multimodal one Ultimately this transformation was important for the new media cultures of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Making Pictorial Print recovers this chapter in the history of new media applying concepts from media theory and the digital humanities to analyse four popular late Victorian magazines the Illustrated London News the Graphic Pearson's Magazine and the Strand and the scrapbook media that appropriated them Using the concept of media literacy these case studies demonstrate the ways in which periodical design aesthetics affected the terms of engagement presented to readers creating opportunities for them to participate in and even contribute to popular culture Shaped by publishers advertisers and readers themselves the pages of these periodicals document the emergence of modern mass culture as we know it and offer insight into the new media of our digital present Consuming Angels Lori Anne Loeb,1994-10-13 Timid and retiring the Victorian housewife was an angel in the house or so says the stereotype But when this angel picked up a popular magazine The Lady for instance she saw in its advertisements images of Grecian goddesses women warriors queens actresses adventurers These arrestingly sexual and surprisingly powerful images are the subject of Consuming Angels a major examination of how Victorian ads shaped social values Stylishly written and featuring 73 reproductions this book shows how ads used the hedonistic aspects of Victorian culture to sell their wares glorified consumerism and mythologized the middle class life Images of aggressive women Loeb shows played well to both men and women And ultimately these ads helped usher in the twentieth century with the creation of a new community the community of consumers The Advertiser's ABC of Official Scales & Charges and Advertisement Press Directory ,1906 Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook ,1901 Beyond Sensation Marlene Tromp,Pamela K.
