Well Well Reality:

Well Well Reality Rosmarie Waldrop, Keith Waldrop, 1998 Reality Jeff Havens, 2014-11-01 Trent Tucker the protagonist of this hilarious satire hates reality TV Unfortunately his job at Nova Consulting involves the creation of new reality shows that are even more outrageous and excessive than those now on television Surrounded by colleagues who could easily be characters in the own reality show dumb blonde angry black man flamboyant homosexual frosty bitch fast talking Sicilian and their megalomaniacal boss P T Beauregard Trent s immersion is complete The characters in Reality the novel behave a lot like their television counterparts as they bicker with each other incessantly backstab their co workers find themselves on a deserted island and become involved in a murder plot all good clean fun that mimics the fantasy lives they feverishly try to create for their anxious network clients The Reality of a Spiritual World Sir Oliver Lodge, 1930

Different Accounts David Gahtan, 2008-09 Karl Tycho a divorced low keyed economist in his 50 s is employed by a commercial bank in Manhattan and finds it hard to adjust to the competitive nature of his new assignment When he loses an important account he is promptly fired Just how he lost his most important customer however is a mystery and the story behind it is one of financial deal making broken friendships and conflicting personalities Among them are Laura the blunt boss who fires Karl without remorse Roy the wealthy and eccentric client whose money means everything to Karl s department at the bank and Tim the archetypal aggressive Wall Street executive And many others There are also Karl s conflicting love interests interwoven in the plot Harriet a musician who knows nothing about the stock market and who gets Karl s attention and Sarah a witty ex academician about whom he has reservations Look at Wall Street through the eyes of an economist who struggles to maintain his identity in a world obsessed with competition and money making in Different Accounts Hagar the Martyr; Or, Passion and Reality Harriet Marion Stephens, 1855 Joyce and Reality John Gordon, 2004-05-01 Joyce was a realist but his reality was not ours writes John Gordon in his new book Here he maintains that the shifting styles and techniques of Joyce s works is a function of two interacting realities the external reality of a particular time and place and the internal reality of a character s mental state In making this case Gordon offers up a number of new readings how Stephen Dedalus conceives and composes his villanelle why the Dubliners story about Little Chandler is titled A Little Cloud why Gerty MacDowell suddenly appears and disappears what is happening when Leopold Bloom stares for two minutes on end at a beer bottle s label why the triangle etched at the center of Finnegans Wake doubles itself and grows a pair of circles why the next to last chapter of Ulysses has by far the book s highest incidence of the letter C and who is the man in the macintosh Gordon whose authoritative Finnegans Wake A Plot Summary received critical acclaim and is considered one of the standard references revises and challenges the received version of that reality For instance Joyce features ghost visitations telepathy and other paranormal phenomena not as flights into fantasy but because he believed in the real possibility of such occurrences Hart's E&P. , 2003 The Secret of Happiness Edmond Holmes, 1919
