Wendy Mills:

My Chimp Friday Hester Mundis, 2011-10-04 Rachel can't imagine why Bucky Greene a scientist friend of her father's who's developing genetically engineered bananas would show up at their New York City apartment in the middle of the night to leave a baby chimpanzee with them for a week or why they absolutely positively can't tell anyone about it. What could possibly be top secret about an adorable chimp like Friday? Rachel hasn't a clue but when Friday turns out to be really inexplicably intelligent Rubik's Cube's a snap and Bucky Greene turns up really inexplicably dead he slipped on his own banana peel she suspects serious monkey business afoot. And when chimp nappers step into the picture getting to the bottom of Friday's top secret before it's too late becomes a delightfully madcap mystery with Rachel in a riotous nonstop race for survival of the fittest. Written by four-time Emmy nominated writer and acclaimed humorist Hester Mundis who raised a chimp of her own in her Manhattan apartment this is a wonderfully funny and heartfelt novel about endangered species corporate espionage and going bananas in more ways than one.

Influence of the 9/11 novel on Muslim Writing Matthias Dickert, 2017-10-11 Scientific Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz language English abstract Since 9 11 many Muslims struggle with their identity and are exposed to xenophobia violence vicious defamation harassment or displacement In short the notion Muslim in relation to that day has become a stigma It is against this background and the post traumatic aftermath of September 11 2001 where many novelists disposing of a Muslim background wrote their novels The logical consequence from this was that Muslim writing as such has become more complex stressing the standpoints of hearer and teller as elements of distortion Interesting though is the fact that some novels dealing with Islam and Muslim characters have taken up and used the Oriental stereotypes where Muslims are according to Said seen as either oil suppliers or potential terrorists For a long time Muslim characters in literature have been connected to this negative image which Said also labels as other and Spivak as subaltern The hybrid in which many Muslim characters are often set is also still equated with the exotic thus ignoring the energy of Bhabha s term and its positive realizations in fiction It is therefore one aim of this essay to throw light on this matter and to shortly reflect the present influence of 9 11 on Muslim writing Commencement University of Minnesota, 1972
