manual first published twelve years earlier 1721 The True Church of England Man's Companion in the Closet or A Complete Manual of Private Devotion The book compiled by Nathaniel Spinckes included prayers for morning and evening every day of the week beginning with Sunday Wesley not only revised the prayer which he reprinted from Spinckes but assigned them to different days and times He used other sources in addition to Spinckes and may have added original prayers of his own The preface is clearly Wesley's own which he revised after sharing a draft with his father Wesley also added a list of particular questions for self examination before evening prayer each day and a briefer series of general questions for use every morning prefixed to the prayers for Monday Here Wesley was following a practice of Western spiritual advisers from Robert Nelson and others in the 17th century back to Ignatius of Loyola in the 16th century When Wesley revised the book for its fifth edition in 1740 he omitted the questions for self examination and made the volume more suitable for general use by substituting family for college in several places The elimination of the questions may have been in response to brother Samuel Wesley's criticism that the emphasis on self examination was mystic nonsense Editions after 1755 including that in Wesley's collected works restored the questions Along the way hymns were also added making later editions a popular book of worship for Methodist families and societies
