- Making Words Sing* Jonathan Dunsby, 2004-06-10
What makes a classical song a song? In a wide ranging 2004 discussion covering such contrasting composers as Brahms and Berberian, Schubert and Kurt G. Jonathan Dunsby considers the nature of vocalicity in songs of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The essence and scope of poetic and literary meaning in the Lied tradition is subjected to close scrutiny against the backdrop of new musicological thinking and music theoretical orthodoxies. The reader is thus offered the best insights available within an evidence based approach to musical discourse. Schoenberg figures conspicuously as both songsmith and theorist and some easily comprehensible Schenkerian approaches are used to convey ideas of musical time and expressive focus. In this work of scholarship and theoretical depth, Professor Dunsby's highly original approach and engaging style will ensure its appeal to all practising musicians and students of Romantic and modern music.
- When Words Sing R. Murray Schafer, E. Van der Merwe, 1979
Missing More Than Music Danny Corbitt, 2008-11-04
We're missing out on hearing one another's songs on worship in our daily lives on passion in our praise on the dance of David on fellowship with Christians who disagree on sharing testimony of God's work in our assemblies on agreeing together and more. In the Churches of Christ some begin to broaden their experience in praise wishing they could answer the questions of those who feel left behind. Missing More than Music understands why we look at the same evidence and disagree. There is hope for worship and unity. We're missing more than music. Let's have all that we've been missing together.
