

The Medieval Experience

Philip Tonner

The Medieval Experience:

Lectio Divina Duncan Robertson, 2011-12-01 During the Middle Ages the act of reading was experienced intensively in the monastic exercise of lectio divina the prayerful scrutiny of passages of Scripture savored in meditation memorized recited and rediscovered in the reader's own religious life The rich literary tradition that arose from this culture includes theoretical writings from the Conferences of John Cassian fifth century through the twelfth century treatises of Hugh of St Victor and the Carthusian Guigo II it also includes compilations literary meditations and scriptural commentary notably on the Song of Songs This study brings medievalist research together with modern theoretical reflections on the act of reading in a consolidation of historical scholarship spirituality and literary criticism

Heidegger and Aquinas John D. Caputo, 2024-10-22 Available in a new digital edition with reflowable text suitable for e readers The purpose of the present study is to undertake a confrontation of the thought of Martin Heidegger and Thomas Aquinas on the question of Being and the problem of metaphysics Now a confrontation which does no more than draw up a catalogue of common traits and points of difference is no more than a curiosity an idle comparison which bears no fruit Pilgrimage Explored Jennie

Stopford, 1999 The history and underlying ideology of pilgrimage examined from prehistory to the middle ages The enduring importance of pilgrimage as an expression of human longing is explored in this volume through three major themes the antiquity of pilgrimage in what became the Christian world the mechanisms of Christian pilgrimage particularly in relation to the practicalities of the journey and the workings of the shrine and the fluidity and adaptability of pilgrimage ideology In their examination of pilgrimage as part of western culture from neolithic times onwards the authors make use of a range of approaches often combining evidence from a number of sources including anthropology archaeology history folklore margin illustrations and wall paintings they suggest that it is the fluidity of pilgrimage ideology combined with an adherence to supposedly traditional physical observances which has succeeded in maintaining its relevance and retaining its identity They also look at the ways in which pilgrimage spilled into or rather was part of secular life in the middle ages Dr JENNIE STOPFORD teaches in the Centre for Medieval Studies University of York Contributors RICHARD BRADLEY E D HUNT JULIEANN SMITH SIMON BARTON WENDY R CHILDS BEN NILSON KATHERINE J LEWIS DEBRA J BIRCH SIMON COLEMAN JOHN ELSNER A M KOLDEWEIJ Heidegger, Metaphysics and the Univocity of Being Philip

Tonner, 2010-01-17 In Heidegger Metaphysics and the Univocity of Being Philip Tonner presents an interpretation of the philosophy of Martin Heidegger in terms of the doctrine of the univocity of being According to the doctrine of univocity there is a fundamental concept of being that is truly predicable of everything that exists This book explores Heidegger's engagement with the work of John Duns Scotus who raised philosophical univocity to its historical apotheosis Early in his career Heidegger wrote a book length study of what he took to be a philosophical text of Duns Scotus Yet the word univocity rarely features in translations of Heidegger's works Tonner shows by way of a comprehensive discussion of Heidegger's philosophy that a univocal notion of being in fact plays a distinctive and crucial role in his thought This book thus presents a novel interpretation of Heidegger s work as a whole that builds on a suggested interpretation by Gilles Deleuze in Difference and Repetition and casts a new light on Heidegger s philosophy clearly illuminating his debt to Duns Scotus Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator,2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanites courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning The Destiny of the Soul William Rounseville Alger,1880 The Medieval World Helen Howe,1992 The Medieval Park Robert Liddiard,2007 The park a feature of the landscape we always associate with the hunting of deer played an important role in the psyche of Britain s medieval aristocracy This well illustrated book offers a reappraisal of the park by a new generation of landscape researchers who use a diversity of approaches to assess its economy ecology and social role They show how parks actually had many functions other than deer management and hunting they were integrated into the wider rural economy and also provided a means by which seigniorial control of the landscape might be demonstrated They varied considerably across Britain and are of considerable conservation significance today The Varieties of Religious Experience William James,1902 The Interpretation of Religious Experience: Constructive John Watson,1912 Macmillan's Magazine ,1897 History Albert Frederick Pollard,Harold Felix Baker Wheeler,1927 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1911 The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1911 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,James Louis Garvin,1926 A History of Christian-Latin Poetry from the Beginnings to the Close of the Middle Ages Frederic James Edward Raby,1927 Archaeologia Aeliana, Or, Miscellaneous Tracts Relating to Antiquity ,1903 A classified catalogue of papers from Archaeologia aeliana 1813 1913 is included in the Centenary volume ser 3 v 10 p 334 376 Archaeologia Aeliana, Or, Miscellaneous Tracts Relating to Antiquities ,1903 List of members in v 1 2d ser v 7 25 3rd ser v 2 3rd ser v 10 containing members from the foundation of the Society to 1913 etc Court of Appeals: State of New York: 8906 , The Interpretation of Religious Experience John Watson,1912
